PREFACE.

The first Catalogue of the Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity, a thin, paper-covered 12mo pamphlet of 16 pages, was published in 1837, the first of its kind among kindred issues. The Semi-Centennial Catalogue is the twelfth in a series which has now lasted through half a century, and bids fair to continue without pause or abatement, increasing in size and growing in interest through twice the number of coming years. Without attempting a memorial volume, the present Catalogue is designed to place before the members of the Fraternity a record of its outer life. The prefatory pages contain a brief sketch of the organic growth of the Society from without, a roll of its Conventions, a Bibliography of the Fraternity and an Alpha Delta Phi Chronology. The Chapters in the order of their establishment fill the body of the record. Careful inquiry and diligent correspondence have shown that the order hitherto accepted is inaccurate, and it has been changed to suit the facts in the present volume. The new order makes Yale the fifth Chapter, and reverses the previous position of Hudson and Bowdoin, and of Dartmouth and Peninsular. The record under each Chapter consists of brief annals, intended to be a mere memorandum of the growth of the Chapter, a partial list of College prizes, and next the membership of the Chapter, headed by its charter members. Succeeding the Chapters is a Record of the Military Service of Members of the Fraternity, compiled at the War Department. Its presence gives this volume a value of its own as an enduring record of the devotion of educated men in a great national struggle. The thanks of the Fraternity are due to Congressman Willis, of Michigan, for his zealous aid in obtaining the compilation of this list, and to Hon. Robert T. Lincoln, Secretary of War, and Adjutant General Drumm, for its preparation. Its editing for this Catalogue was in the hands of R. H. Thayer, Peninsular, '70, and R. J. Mitchell, Williams, '63. Supplemental Lists of Kiuship in Alpha Delta Phi, Geographical Distribution in the Fraternity, and an Index of Names, complete the volume, which closes with an Appendix, filled chiefly with new matter, obtained too late for insertion in its proper place. A table of contents precedes this Preface, and an Index finishes the work.

The unit of arrangement adopted in this Catalogue is the Chapter, and the unit within the Chapter is the class. The membership of each Chapter is given complete, the same rule being followed in the lists of Military Service and Kin. Each member who has ever enjoyed active relations with a Chapter is given under it, although his final relations may have been with another Chapter. This has led to a number of repetitions, and it is often the case that the later entry contains the fullest detail. In the Index of Names all the different Chapters to which members belonged are given in the order of time. The last is in every case but one—W. B. Rankine, Georgian, '77—the Chapter to which the member now belongs. I. T. Beckwith, Phi Kappa and Yale, '68, is entered under the former Chapter, while still retaining his connection with the latter, for reasons which appear upon the record. Within each Chapter the members are arranged by classes exclusively, an order specifically directed by the Convention of 1854, implicitly followed for a few years, and then abandoned in part. Each member is assigned to his graduation year, often antedating the establishment of the Chapter, or to the year of his admission as determined at initiation. The only arbitrary arrangement is in the case of Timothy Dwight Falls, Hudson, '28. In the Chapter record the names of those receiving a post-graduate election are entered in italics. Early in the history of the Fraternity the line between graduate and non-graduate membership was by no means closely drawn. The early prosperity and success of many of our Chapters turned upon the earnest support of young graduates in the virgine, often member-of the College Faculty, elected after receiving a degree. In Dartmouth an entire class, which shared in the establishment of the Chapter, enjoyed active relations with it in spite of graduation, and their names appear in Roman. In Geneva, Hudson and Bowdoin, the post-graduate members at the head of each Chapter were, with one exception, all elected in the early years of the Chapter, immediately after their leaving College and while the relation of these members to the interests and activities of student-life was intimate and immediate.

The record of each member consists of the full baptismal name, the Greek letters, and the residence. Where a baptismal name has been dropped it is given in brackets; where, as in a number of cases, all but the first letter has been dropped, the remainder of the name is bracketed. In all cases where a single letter stands without a period, it is a name, not an initial. In three instances "M.", as punctuated, is a name, and in one "Fred.", with a period. In its large number of letter names the present Catalogue illustrates, as have other like issues, the growth of this new practice in nomenclature—a source of perplexity to the cataloguer and toil to the proof-reader—whose commencement is to be regretted, and whose spread is to be deplored. With the name is given a record of professional and collegiate degrees. In all classes from 1882 to 1885, inclusive, a dagger is prefixed to the names of those who have left College, or who are not studying for the degree of A.B. or its equivalent. Each member in classes of and before 1881, whose name is not prefixed by a †, has taken the degree of A.B. or an equivalent grade, at the institution where the Chapter is situated, and in the year to which his class belongs. If this degree has been taken elsewhere, the dagger is prefixed, and the extra-graduation recorded in the lines below. If the degree has been taken at the same institution, but in some other year, the dagger is omitted, and the year of graduation noted below. Under this arrangement the name of a member who has belonged to more than one Chapter is frequently prefixed by a dagger in one Chapter and not in the other.

With the name are given only the three designations, Rev., LL.B. and M.D., which indicate professional study. All honorary degrees have been excluded in this connection, as it has been deemed best to let the name record deal exclusively with the results of study. All other degrees appear as a portion of the biographical notice. In designating institutions it has been the aim of the cataloguer to use the term most generally known. As the entries are the work of many hands a lack of uniformity is sometimes apparent. Andover and several other Theological Seminaries give no degrees, a fact often overlooked in Catalogues. The fact of graduation has, in this Catalogue, been noted with other degrees.

The degree of A.M. has been omitted, save in some special instances. With rare exceptions it is a meaningless record of the circumstance that a graduate survived graduation three years and visited his College at the close of this period. The characters which appear after the name are omitted of design in certain instances. In the case of Miami this omission can only be supplied when the Chapter resumes its active functions. The residence is in all cases intended to record the domicile. Street addresses for all cities over 50,000 in population, by the census of 1880, appear in the Geographical list. Street addresses in all other cities have been carefully recorded for use in future Catalogues, if needed.

It was the original purpose to make the entry beneath the name give only the present occupation, the collegiate degrees, the public offices and the military service, if any, of members. How completely this modest purpose has been fulfilled in its most difficult particular the Table of Occupations abundantly proves. Information far in excess of this requirement was found to be at the service of the Committee, and the record will be found in many hundreds of cases to be as full as need ever be presented, while the vast majority of entries give a partial outline of the lives of members. Throughout, and in accordance with the original plan, the present occupation is given first. The Catalogue date is as near as may be January 1, 1882, and the biographical entry is presented as a record of the occupations of the living on that date, and the last recorded avocation of the dead, with, in most cases, the date on which the calling began. The date adopted has, however, been in no case allowed to interfere with the insertion of additional information. Throughout no rule has been permitted to prevent the addition of specific facts in regard to one member which would not be given of all. The successive charges of clergymen were not included in the original plan, but wherever these could be obtained they have been entered. In this, as in many, perhaps all respects, the Semi-Centennial Catalogue is presented not as fulfilling, but as approximating to the model of an adequate Catalogue of the Fraternity. The preparation of such a work still remains to be discharged. The one necessity, to which everything else has been made to bend, has been publication in time for the Semi-Centennial Convention. To employ a phrase whose full meaning will be clearest to the many journalists included in these pages, it has been the sedulous purpose of the Editor to print the most news about the most members in the least space, and "go to press in time to catch the mails."

The preparation of the present work has been divided between the undergraduate and active members of the Fraternity at each Chapter and a Graduate Committee, the contract for publication being made by the Executive Council of the Fraternity, whose existence as a corporation has materially aided, if it has not made possible, the issue of the work. The first step towards the compilation of the Catalogue was taken by the issue of a circular of instructions, dated February 26, 1881. The work of sending circulars to all the living members of the Fraternity was undertaken by each Chapter on behalf of its own membership, and from these circulars the first draft of the record by Chapters was compiled at each College. This labor for Miami and Geneva was assumed by

F. M. Coppock, '73, in one case, and by B. W. Franklin, '71, and W. B. Rankine, '77, in the other. The editing of the other four Chapters, whose active functions are now suspended, was assumed by the Editor, materially aided by C. M. Hough and others, and in the case of Yale by graduate members of the Chapter. The record by Chapters, as compiled by many hands, reached the Editor in November and December of 1881. Since then the entire work has been compiled, and the portion already in manuscript has been edited, revised, compared with the circulars filled out by members, and gaps filled up by the result of over 3,500 special inquiries. The labor of compiling the entries of individual members has been lightened by the increasing attention paid to biographical data by institutions of learning. The records of Andover, Princeton and Union Theological Seminaries have been of constant use. The record of graduate and non-graduate members of Amherst College, prepared by W. L. Montague and E. P. Crowell, materially aided the full record given under that Chapter, as did a like compilation in the case of Middletown. The Register of Alabama University, furnished by T. C. McCorvey, has lightened the work in the case of the Alabama Chapter.

Errors, inaccuracies and omissions still remain. They will be judged leniently by professional cataloguers familiar with the difficulties of the work. Regret at their presence is alleviated by the circumstance that in the preparation of this work every triennial has been tested and found lacking in its names, its dates or its index; often in all three.

At start, the work of preparing a measurably adequate Catalogue of the Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity presented many and peculiar difficulties. The past eleven Catalogues have nearly all been compiled by undergraduates, whose zeal has not in all cases been tempered by accuracy. In one Chapter, Urban, the original addresses entered in the second Catalogue, over forty years ago, had, with two or three exceptions, stood unchanged. The addresses in the two Southern Chapters, entered before the war, had remained unaltered during a period whose changes can be compared only with several generations of peaceful life. Of the remaining addresses in the last Catalogue nearly all those in the earlier classes were those originally entered; and in classes more recent the home address of each member stood unchanged. Above all, the Fraternity early crossed the Alleghenies, and established itself in the West, at Miami, at a time when few records were kept, and attendance at the University was irregular. Fortunately the members of the Fraternity were not men unknown. Many have played their part in the history of their country and their State; nearly all have left their mark in the community in which they lived: and where an early death had shortened life, labor and achievement, our members have left a memory which made the collection of information always a pleasant, and generally an easy task. It is due to these causes that, in the short space of a year, the volunteer labors of a few men, working in the spare leisure of journalists and lawyers, have reduced the members of the Fraternity, whose address was not known, to the brief list which appears in the Appendix. The accidents of changing address and occupation have probably included in it members whose whereabouts are known to hundreds. The experience gained in compilation shows that but a short time is needed to clear up this list; but it is one of the restrictions placed upon a work carried on, as this has been, by men engaged in the early active practice of their professions, that the time given to it is necessarily limited, and a prompt close must be given to the labors of leisure.

With a single exception, and that due to a residence abroad, each member of the Committee has shared the labor of preparing the Semi-Centennial Catalogue. The greater portion of the work has, however, been necessarily carried on under the immediate supervision of the Editor. Three industrious and valuable weeks were given to labor upon the Catalogue by T. L. Mead, whose advice and assistance in all the earlier stages of the work were invaluable; while the editing of the Kinship lists, later, rested almost wholly in his hands. To Charles Merrill Hough, Dartmouth, '79, publication on the appointed date is chiefly due. The accuracy and completeness of the Catalogue, and the small number of members unaccounted for at the final summing up are the fruits of his judicious counsel and industrious coöperation. But for his hearty zeal the work would have fallen far short of the original plan and the just demands of the Fraternity. Besides preparing his own Chapter with exceptional accuracy, Charles W. Freeland, Phi Kappa, '81, edited two other Chapters, his labor in one case beginning with the circulars and ending with the proof. Special assistance has been rendered in the publication of lists of unaccounted, and in other directions, by the Star and Crescent. L. B. Hall, Amherst, '73, shared in the general work of preparing copy for the printer, three Chapters passing through his hands. Like assistance has been rendered at nearly every stage of the Catalogue, by E. C. Howland, Cornell, '79, and W. C. Russel, Jr., Cornell, '80. Upon all bibliographical and technical subjects the advice of L. E. Jones, Manhattan, '73, has been of constant value. The frontispiece and the design upon the cover were prepared for this work by E. R. Smith, Amherst, '76. The illustration of Chapter houses is due to the aid of E. D. Hudson, Manhattan, '64, and C. M. Goodsell, Peninsular, '65. The long list of collaborators gives better proof than any acknowledgment here can of the wide circle whom the Catalogue has interested. In all directions, from members who shared the early labor of founding our Chapters to undergraduates recently initiated, the Editor has received the heartiest aid and warm encouragement. Without this the preparation of the Catalogue would have been well nigh impossible. A still wider circle has aided with information in response to inquiry, and, like every enterprise of this character, the Semi-Centennial Catalogue has found in an admirable postal system its most useful aid. For the Editor, engrossed in daily editorial labor, a large share in the work of planning, editing and publishing this Catalogue would have been out of the question but for the accurate industry of Mrs. Williams, to whose painstaking care and tireless labor is due whatever of value his connection with the enterprise may have given the Catalogue.

To those within the Fraternity an explanation of the motives which have led many busy men to devote their leisure to a labor like this will not be needed. To those without its pale an explanation is neither requisite nor necessary. The volume is its own sufficient proof of a deep interest in associations which the years clothe with sentiment and surround with tender regard. In the broader battle and wider conflict to which every educated man is summoned, if he discharge aright the responsibilities of his station and opportunity, the close companionships of the lodge room may cease from daily life, but their inspiration remains. The touch of the elbow among educated men, the hearty coöperation and common labor of men enjoying equal opportunities and weighted by equal responsibilities, remains a factor in the struggle for better things, within and without, in the life of the state, the community and the individual. That this Catalogue may, in its own field, supplement and strengthen the work already achieved by the Fraternity in this direction, is the strong hope of

THE EDITOR.

CONVENTION NOTES.

Any detailed history of our Fraternity is neither desired nor permitted. It has been thought well in these pages to notice briefly the most important public topics which have attracted the attention of the whole Fraternity in successive Conventions assembled. After tracing, through letters, minutes and reports, the evidences of a growth which meant more than mere expansion, and of changes which were not revolutions, we feel even more keenly than on initiation night the apt beauty of the time-honored comparison that likens $\Lambda \Gamma \Phi$ to some firm-rooted tree, not lacking in rich and pleasant fruit, while in strength continually increasing. Like such a form of organic life our Fraternity has grown, as all organized beings enjoying life must grow, though always watched and often pruned by truest friends, until after half a century of existence, however greatly changed in outer seeming by continual growth, in every aim and attribute of true fraternity life our $\Lambda \Gamma \Phi$ is the same as the brotherhood of the founders, just as truly as are the seedling and the full-branched tree still one in heart and nature.

The reasons which led Samuel Eells to organize the first Chapter are sufficiently and more properly told in its annals; but the condition of affairs which then existed was by no means peculiar to Hamilton. The old open societies which early sprung up in all our Colleges, and whose names still exist in most, had begun with no higher aim than to be active debating societies, and fifty years ago had become merely political clubs, whose only political creed was hatred of one another. If memory and tradition be not thought sufficient to justify this assertion, the early records of the older Chapters contain much reading, more interesting than pleasant, concerning the organized meanness by which these societies existed, and the determined opposition they manifested to the founders of $\Lambda \Gamma \Phi$.

Knowing, then, that the establishment of every Chapter would be made a personal conflict, the brothers of Hamilton trusted in the beginning to nothing but the personal efforts of some Alpha Delt who resided in the neighborhood of the proposed Chapter. Thus Brother Eells originated and watched over Miami, acting promptly in the work, the letter that told of all his plans and hopes being received at Hamilton, October 7, 1833. When the delegations from three classes had been graduated, and most of the members had found homes for themselves, on July 28, 1835, instructions were sent to Daniel Huntington to establish the Urban Chapter. This was done, and Arthur Cleveland Coxe, of the new Chapter, reported the foundation of Columbia, July 15, 1836. This report of Bro. Coxe was made to Ira Adams and Theo. B. Lyman, who were sent out by Hamilton to visit, and in some sense to inspect, the A J Φ of New York. After approving of what had been already accomplished they proceeded to Yale, where they found, in the classes of '37 and '38, a goodly number of staunch Alpha Delt, who had received elections at Hamilton, among them Seth Tryon Wilbur, whose untimely death may fairly be counted as the first loss of the Fraternity. The Yale Chapter was organized during this visit of the Hamilton Committee, in July, 1836.

In all these proceedings there is a straightforward simplicity well suited to the days of small things; but there is also an enthusiasm in the work, manifested by such undertakings as this tour of inspection and organization, that cannot be too warmly emulated in days when such simplicity is no longer possible. A feeling that such days were coming led to the calling of our first Convention, which met on July 27, 1836.

This meeting, after formally adopting the word "Chapter," and disapproving of the words "club" and "branch," passed a series of resolutions relating to every essential of fraternal intercourse, and placing some limitations upon the spread of the society; these last restrictions have only changed to become more stringent in times when, instead of rejoicing in four Chapters, we have been threatened with forty, while the substance of their other proceedings is still the organic law of the Fraternity.

All early resolutions concerning Conventions were honored more in breach than observance, their practical interpretation being that Conventions should be held annually, if possible. At any rate, since within a year after this first assembling, Chapters were founded, through the efforts of Yale, in Harvard, Amherst and Brown, the second Convention met in August, 1837. A general fear that the Fraternity would become merely bulky by such rapid development, gave rise to many of the acts of this meeting.

This Convention also mentioned — strange enough it seems to us — as a matter for most serious consideration, that the Fraternity numbered two hundred and thirty-one members; but there was reason for such thought, for the body of law by the first two Conventions established, coupled with such an increase in membership, made it no longer possible or advisable to extend the society by such private personal endeavor as was used in the beginning. Then, again, during these earlier years, the parent Chapter at Hamilton had been looked upon as “headquarters,” as Bro. Egbert Bagg, writing to Geneva in 1842, phrases it. The natural increase of six or seven years made any such hegemony impossible.

These feelings found expression in the Convention of 1839, which settled the rules of extension on the same basis of caution that previous meetings had indicated. Since the large and enthusiastic gathering at A J Φ's quarter-centennial, and in consequence of resolutions there passed, these matters have been decisively acted on only when the Chapters are united in Convention.

Turning from our Fraternity's mode of increase to its internal government, the same process of change is found. When two or three “branches” and some scores of brothers constituted the society, there was no necessity for elaborate organization; the supervision and assistance of graduates such as Eells, Wilbur, Lyman and Storrs (a list which might justly be a much longer one), was far more serviceable. In 1839, however, the widely spread Chapters felt the necessity of some central government, able to exercise power between the sittings of conventions. The need took shape in a demand for "consolidation," by which was originally meant a plan to clothe the Hamilton or some other one Chapter with executive authority. This did not find favor in the Convention, and the result of the movement was the election of a special representative by every Chapter, and these, with the President, were to be considered the permanent rulers of the Fraternity. This resolution recognized the true doctrine that $\Delta \Delta \Phi$ is an indissoluble union of equal, autonomous and independent Chapters, and it did great good in strengthening the feeling of fraternal union; but, unfortunately, the exact powers and duties of the Council were not defined. This was an error in organization which all subsequent changes failed to entirely rectify. The Conventions of '45 and '57, the former being especially called for that purpose, the latter acting upon the personal suggestion of Dr. Storrs, the President of the year; both these assemblies considered with earnest attention every plan suggested for increasing the efficiency of the Council. The same subject demanded, though less imperatively, the thoughts of subsequent gatherings; but time has shown that every amendment failed, after all, to reach the root of the difficulty. In truth, the days had passed when our whole Fraternity could be ruled like a single family; a corporate government was a necessity. At last the Convention of 1878, upon a motion of Bro. Francis Lynde Stetson, recognized this fact, by appointing the Committee which framed the scheme of the Executive Council of the Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity. The same Convention authorized the Council, and it received a Charter from the State of New York, on May 5, 1879.

The corporate head of the Fraternity, then, is composed of fifty members, thirty-three of whom must reside in or near New York City; the remaining seventeen Councillors are resident one near each Chapter. The thirty-three Councillors in New York City consist of the officers of the Fraternity, three members at large holding office for one year, three holding office for two years, and three holding office for three years, besides one representative for every active and inactive Chapter. The members for active Chapters are appointed each by the Chapter which he represents; those for inactive Chapters are appointed by the Convention.

Such a large body must necessarily delegate much of its work to committees, and to secure rapid and effective operation, an Executive Committee of nine members has been appointed by the Council to meet at least once in three months, and as much more frequently as may be needful. This Executive Committee has been given large powers, including that of filling vacancies in its own membership, and will actively guide and direct the affairs of the Fraternity: its action, however, being subject to review at the annual meetings of the whole Council. Thus the advantages of centralization are secured, while the interests of every Chapter are carefully provided for by full representation.

Our outward symbols have a public history worth noting. Although the slab badge, which was first swung at Hamilton in 1832, was not intended by the founder to be permanent, the very fact that it was the first, the original combination of our crescent and star, has been enough to preserve it from being completely supplanted by the badge now generally worn. As is well known, the latter originated as a graduate symbol. The first mention of it is of date July 3, 1833, when Calvert Comstock reported a graduate badge to the Hamilton Chapter. It is described as a star and crescent wrought in gold, to be worn as a pendant on the guard-chain. The report was adopted, but the fashion of the crescent and the star apparently left to individual taste. When undergraduates as well as alumni began to provide themselves with skeleton badges, substantially as now worn, the subject attracted the attention of the whole Fraternity. In 1857 four Chapters expressed themselves in favor of change; but after several committees had reported unsatisfactorily, the old badge was unanimously retained in 1860. In 1864 a new Committee recommended that both the slab and skeleton styles be recognized, but they were ordered to prepare a new report. The Convention of 1870 accepted the Committee's report, but did not adopt it, and the society waited another five years before finally decreeing that the slab and skeleton badges, as now usually made — the pearl skeleton badge being taken as a standard — are the only styles permissible.

The sign of mourning so well known, a black ribbon around the badge, was adopted by the Convention of 1836, on motion of Bro. Arthur Cleveland Coxe. The same Convention authorized the use of seals by Chapters, but the style recommended has not found favor with the Fraternity. Song-books and Catalogues have always been issued by authority of the Conventions. The first song-book was voted in 1854, and in the next year Bro. Charles Ray Palmer reported that the work had been completed, and was pecuniarily entirely successful.

In the publication of Catalogues, ever since the first vote on the subject in 1836, Conventions have played a large part, not always to the advantage of the work; for the arrangement of names in alphabetical order only, to the entire subordination of Class and Chapter divisions, was done by direct order of Convention. This method, the reason for which it is difficult now to understand, was used from '40 to '54, and has been productive of much disorder and confusion. The idea of an index of residences was first broached in 1868; but it then came to nothing, and only in this present Catalogue has that project been completed.

The publication of 1860 has been apparently the most satisfactory to the Fraternity, a resolution of thanks having been passed in that year to the Yale Chapter for "the best Catalogue ever printed." The preparation of Catalogues previous to the present one has been entrusted sometimes to the Council, oftenest to particular Chapters, and once to the Committee on the Magazine.

This last phrase needs explanation. For some years after the foundation of the Fraternity a plan was very much in the thoughts of many College men, of publishing, by coöperation among all the Colleges of the land, a magazine or review, which should impress upon the world the thoughts of College thinkers. Some few numbers of such a review were actually published at Yale, with no money loss, it is said, but certainly no literary glory. It all seems a cumbrous plan now; but, whether a delusion or not, the Fraternity shared in it. At every regular Convention for twenty years the subject of the A J Φ magazine was discussed with gradually cooling zeal, until the Convention of 1854 finally laid the subject aside.

In another scheme, nearly as thoroughly forgotten as the intercollegiate magazine, and in the apparent opinion of our countrymen as futile, has A J Φ taken a part almost amusing. The Convention of 1853 quite resolved upon the size and shape of the stone, together with the inscription thereon, which the Fraternity would contribute to the National Washington Monument. Repenting, however, of so sudden a conclusion, the matter was put off a year. In 1854 the Committee reported "favorable progress;" but in 1855 we went over to the majority of Washington's countrymen, and deciding that the scheme was impossible, thus contributed to the pile of stone now standing on the shores of the Potomac.

But tales concerning events of merely temporary importance might be multiplied indefinitely. They are written in all the records, which the labors of all the brethren have gathered together; and these same records, by all the respect due to the advice of graduates, the resolutions of Chapters and the decrees of Conventions, it is the bounden duty of the Fraternity to keep full and perfect.

The records of the past, as well in those private matters of Chapter life upon which we have not here touched, as in the corporate life of the whole Fraternity, show a continual striving after that which is better, a modesty in prosperity and a fortitude in less fortunate times, which may well fill us with thankfulness. If the writings of the future shall tell the same story — and it rests with us to decide the issue — of the A J Φ of another fifty years, it will still be true: —

* * * When, at last, our hearts grow chill
And turn to silent dust,
We shall not die, for brave hearts still Shall keep the ancient trust.

GRADUATE REUNIONS.

A complete list of Graduate Reunions during the last twenty-five years has proved impossible. It has been deemed fitting to commence such a record by publishing the following list. Two of those mentioned below, while forming a part of the records of the New York Graduate Chapter, were held in connection with a Convention. The others were independent of such gatherings. In the case of the reunions at New York, the list is known to be incomplete. This is the more to be regretted, as the New York Graduate Association, definitely organized in 1868, is not an informal organization, intended merely to perpetuate annual reunions and banquets. During fourteen years it has had permanent rooms, and has continued to hold regular monthly meetings throughout each year, excepting the summer months — meetings which have kept an “Alpha Delta Home” in this great city, where the recent graduate could continue the delights of Fraternity life, and the busier brother at mid-life could find those whom he had grown to know and love through mutual enjoyments and tastes. The social features of these meetings have been ever foremost; yet dramas, essays, critiques and discussions of merit, often profound and exhaustive, have made these meetings a means of growth to very many, and have given prominence and stability to an organization which would have survived but a brief period if purely social.

ALPHA DELTA PHI

BIBLIOGRAPHY.

A complete Bibliography of the Fraternity has been found to be impracticable in the present condition of Chapter and Fraternity files. Eventually it is hoped to prepare one which will include a list of all printed documents in the history of the Fraternity and its Chapters. To this end, the Editor of the present Catalogue will welcome information from any direction in regard to books, pamphlets or newspaper notices bearing on the subject. The list below is complete in its collation of Catalogues and Song-Books. The file of the latter was made up at Amherst. The kind assistance of the Harvard College Library in lending three early copies of the Amherst Chapter, in furnishing all the rest but two, supplied, one by Brunonian and the other by O. B. Ireland, Manhattan, '59, enabled the compiler to make a complete list of Catalogues. Acknowledgments are due to a number of other persons. Three classes of references are omitted in the following Bibliography — references to individual Chapters in College illustrated annuals, Convention invitations and newspaper reports of Fraternity occurrences. An effort was made to secure the last; but the project proved impracticable in the time at command. The Illustrated Annuals in which Chapters of the Fraternity have been represented are as follows, in all cases from beginning to date, unless specified: — Amherst, Olio; Bowdoin, Bugle; Brunonian, Liber Brunensis; College of the City of New York, Microcosm; Columbia, Columbiad, since 1881; Cornell, Cornelian; Dartmouth, Ægis; Hamilton, Hamiltonian; Harvard, Index, since 1879; Hobart, Echo of the Seneca, to 1876; Kenyon, Revëille; Peninsular, Palladium; Middletown, Wesleyan; Rochester, Interpres; Trinity, Iry; Union, Garnet; Williams, Gul.; Yale, Banner and Pot Pourri to 1873.

THE HAMILTON CHAPTER,

1832 TO 1885.

Annals.

In the winter of 1831-32 five students of Hamilton College came together in an upper chamber, after the evening lamps were lighted, to devise a method of helping each other forward in their study and culture and preparation for the future. They felt the need of warmer nutriment for their souls than that furnished by the drilled dry lessons of the class-room. Yielding to a good inspiration, which sometimes teaches the inexperienced to plan and build more wisely than they know, these five young men banded themselves together in a life-long league which had in it the seeds of a wide-spread institution. The names of the five students were: Samuel Eells, who died in Cincinnati in 1842; Lorenzo Latham, who died in New Orleans in 1860; Henry Lemuel Storrs, whose death, in 1852, closed the earthly career of an eloquent and devoted minister; Oliver Andrew Morse, who died in 1870; and John C. Underwood, whose death occurred in 1873. In this movement Samuel Eells exercised a controlling influence. When he entered college there were in the institution two literary societies, the Phoenix and the Philopœthian. The strong rivalry between these two societies was not infrequently inflamed into a feeling of hostility and bitterness. The evils connected with this state of things suggested to the mind of Mr. Eells the establishing of a "society of a higher nature and more comprehensive and higher principle." He meditated long and in private over the principles and the plan of the organization. In 1830 it existed only in idea; but in the fall of that year events occurred which induced him to hasten the attempt to clothe the idea with the outward form of reality. A few of the leading members of the two literary societies were approached with caution and finally admitted to his confidence. All approved of the plan and pledged themselves to the work. The first meeting was held in Mr. Eells' room, No. 15, Kirkland Hall. It was a meeting for consultation only, and no presiding officer was appointed, nor were any minutes taken. At a subsequent meeting Lorenzo Latham and Samuel Eells were appointed a committee to report a constitution and a badge. The whole of the constitution as at first adopted was drawn up by Mr. Eells. It is apparent from this sketch that the beginnings of Alpha Delta Phi are veiled to some extent in that obscurity which surrounds the origin of almost all institutions. It did not spring at once into full-grown manhood, but developed and matured until, in 1832, it attained its complete proportions.

This history would be very incomplete if it failed to include some sketch of the brilliant founder of our order.

Samuel Eells was born in Westmoreland, Oneida County, New York, on the 18th of May, 1810. He was a born leader of men. His nature was ardent and affectionate, and he exerted a powerful influence either by the kindness of his heart or by the force of his mind and character. He possessed to a rare degree that quality which is called personal magnetism. He developed in early life remarkable talents for composition and declamation, which gave some intimation of the brilliant oratorical powers which were to follow. His mind was rapid in its action; his habits of thought logical; his scholarship varied and accurate. In addition to this he possessed a rare grace of expression; an imagination naturally vivid and quickened by an intimate acquaintance with literature and art; and a profound faith which compelled conviction. He entered upon life with a slender stock of strength, which the restless energy of his career gave him no time to increase. He was admitted to college in 1827, but in a few months his failing health compelled him to seek new vigor from the sea-air and an ocean voyage.

In 1828 he returned to Hamilton with renewed powers; and, after a college course marked with unusual promise, was graduated in 1832 with the highest honor of his class. In 1835 he began the practice of law in Cincinnati. His success was assured. In less than a year Salmon P. Chase had asked Mr. Eells to become his partner. His professional career covers only the five short years which followed, until 1840; but they were years full of splendid achievement and still more splendid promise. In November, 1840, with health sadly impaired, he sought a southern climate. He was never again able to resume work, and on Sabbath morning, May 13, 1842, he died, at the age of thirty-two. "His highest title," said Mr. Chase, "was Christian."

The internal history of the mother-chapter has been uneventful. At the close of the first half-century of her existence she has just provided herself with a beautiful home. Largely through the liberality of Mr. Dan P. Eells, a brother of our founder, together with numerous and, in the aggregate, large contributions from other sons of Alpha Delta Phi, a "Memorial Hall" has been erected and completed, and the mother-chapter will hold her semi-centenary celebration under the shelter of her own roof.

A partial list of the honors won in college life by the chapter is given below.

THE MIAMI CHAPTER,

1835 TO 1873.

Annals.

It was through the personal effort of Samuel Eells that the Miami Chapter was established. It appears from the "Memorial" of the founder of the society, that in February, 1835, he came to Cincinnati to commence the practice of the law. In September, 1836, he delivered his first public address before the Miami Chapter of A.A.Φ. at its first anniversary. The Chapter, then, must have been established in the month of September, 1835. The following facts relative to its establishment were communicated to the writer by the Hon. Wm. S. Groesbeck, of Cincinnati, and Mr. John B. Temple, of Louisville, Ky.

Samuel Eells came to Cincinnati carrying a letter introducing him to Mr. Groesbeck, who had, the year before, been graduated at Miami University, and was then engaged in the study of law in Cincinnati. They immediately became friends. Mr. Eells laid before his new friend his scheme for founding among college students a society which should "be national and universal in its adaptations, so as not merely to cultivate a taste for literature, or furnish the mind with knowledge, but with a true philosophical spirit looking to the entire man, so as to develop his whole being — moral, social, and intellectual." Mr. Groesbeck approved of the plan, and consented to aid Mr. Eells in his undertaking, and was, thereupon, duly initiated, by Mr. Eells, in the law office in which Mr. Groesbeck was at that time studying.

Miami University was at that time the most celebrated institution of learning in the West, and Mr. Groesbeck, having just graduated there, was acquainted with all the students who would probably be available for membership in a society such as Mr. Eells had in view. He suggested certain names to Mr. Eells of those who seemed the most promising of the members of the university, and a correspondence was immediately commenced with them relative to the establishment of the society. This resulted in Chas. L. Telford and John B. Temple coming to Cincinnati for initiation into the society. Mr. Temple, in a lengthy letter to the writer, says of this: "Brother Eells, by correspondence with Charles L. Telford, induced him, with his classmate John B. Temple, to visit Cincinnati; and in their room at the Dennison House initiated them as members of the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity, and thus laid the foundation of Miami Chapter, which they organized immediately on their return to Oxford."

Of the first public appearance of the organization in Miami University, Brother Temple writes thus: "Soon after the organization, in the fall of 1835 and ensuing winter, and when the membership was about nine, it was thought prudent to bring the existence of the society to the knowledge of the faculty and students of the college, and it was arranged that notice of a meeting should by request be read at morning prayers by the president. He accordingly announced the meeting of the Alpha and Delta and Phi society, manifestly to cast some ridicule upon the announcement. In a few days the members appeared with badge breastpins, and at once a very pronounced opposition to the organization was manifested by the students, although they were ignorant of the character and aim of the society."

It was attempted to make this opposition to the society effective by excluding any future members from admission to the literary societies of the university, of which there were two. Resolutions to this effect were passed and rescinded, and again passed. When they were made final, the members of Alpha Delta Phi quietly resigned from these societies, and, taking with them a goodly number of those who did not belong to their organization, proceeded to form another literary society, similar to those which they had left. The new literary society flourished, and finally absorbed one of the old ones; whereupon the other expunged from their minutes the resolution prohibiting the admission of Alpha Delta Phi, and the opposition ceased.

Alpha Delta Phi soon became one of the institutions of Miami University, and flourished for a period of thirty-eight years from its establishment. During these years many other societies were instituted, with varying success, some of them becoming rivals of Alpha Delta Phi, but nothing occurred during the existence of the Chapter, after it became an established fact, that was peculiar in its nature or of uncommon occurrence in the ordinary course of under-graduate life.

In June, 1873, Miami University was closed to students for an indefinite period, and with it the Miami Chapter ceased to exist. The membership of the Chapter was never large; but we believe that it may be said of the members, that what they lacked in numbers to make them strong they more than made up in enthusiasm for and loyalty to their society. They always felt a pride in the fact that their Chapter had been established by the founder of the society himself, and it was with the deepest regret that, with their ranks still filled, they saw their old Chapter take its place amongst those whose active functions are suspended.

During the first year of the existence of the Chapter, it is believed that thirteen members were initiated, the names of whom it has been thought proper to place at the head of the membership list, as charter members.

THE URBAN CHAPTER,

1835 TO 1839.

Annals.

The Urban Chapter, connected with the University of the City of New York, was established, as were the first five chapters of the Fraternity, through the efforts of graduate members of the Hamilton Chapter, or undergraduates who had left that college for other institutions; among these, in the case of Urban, Daniel Huntington, Hamilton, '36. With him were associated several other members of his own Chapter; and in the earliest catalogue of the Fraternity, 1837, under Urban, to the names of those belonging directly to the Chapter is appended a list of graduate members of other Chapters resident in New York City and its vicinity, while its list also contained names connected with an early effort of the Hamilton Chapter. Urban, the earliest of our metropolitan Chapters, occupied at an early day, while the membership of the Fraternity could still be counted by tens, the same relation to the interest of graduate members in the fortunes of the Fraternity, which has been for the last twenty-five years happily and successfully maintained by Manhattan.

After the lapse of two-score years, in which Urban, alone among the Chapters of an ever Crescent Fraternity, numbers one-half its members among those whose connection with it has been transferred by death, but little remains to be told of the fortunes of the Urban Chapter. Dr. Raymond Hoyt Seeley, '39, has added to its annals his own personal reminiscences of the Chapter. "The Urban Chapter," he writes, "had a brief, but not inglorious existence. As it met but a few times after my connection with it, my recollections of its proceedings are neither numerous nor very distinct. I remember, however, that some choice men were in its ranks, and that its meetings abounded in good fellowship, and were both profitable and interesting. I recall one occasion on which representatives from the Columbia Chapter met with us, and among them were Mr. John Henry Hobart, son of the distinguished bishop of that name, and Mr. John Jay, since then Ambassador of the United States at the Court of Austria. The evening was well occupied, and was memorable in our annals.

“Soon after this Urban Chapter was withdrawn from the University, and, if I remember correctly, it was for the following reasons:—

“A rival society had adopted the practice of electing its members from the Sophomore class, while the Alpha Delta Phi elected none below the last term of the Junior year. By this arrangement our rivals had the opportunity of selecting the most promising men, unless we should follow their example of electing Sophomores. But, as the members of the University, for the most part, entered when quite young, it was thought that their scholarship could not be sufficiently developed in their second year to afford a fair opportunity for judging their qualifications. Hence, instead of petitioning the Council for leave to choose our members a year earlier in their academic course, we concluded to recommend a withdrawal of the Chapter from the institution. Our petition was granted, and with the graduation of my class — that of 1839 — the Urban Chapter ceased to have any connection with the University. I need not say that this action caused us many regrets; but, I doubt not, it has seemed ever since to every one (as at the time) the best thing, in the circumstances, that could be done.

“Soon after the Commencement in the summer of 1839 the members of our Chapter were scattered. The most of them, I think, removed from the city. No meeting has since been held; and it is probable that some of them have entered the realm of mystery beyond us. Yet the hearts of the living members are loyal; and it may not be out of place to suggest the propriety of having one more gathering, that we may brighten the memories of 'auld lang syne,' and mingle our tears of sympathy over our departed comrades, while we once more pledge ourselves to each other, and take courage for that part of our earthly career which is still before us."

THE COLUMBIA CHAPTER,

1836 TO 1885.

Annals.

In 1836, when the Fraternity of Alpha Delta Phi was but four years old, she established her fourth Chapter at Columbia College. This Chapter, since known as the Columbia Chapter, was founded by John Jay, then a Senior in Columbia College. Mr. Jay associated with himself his classmate, the Rev. Dr. John Henry Hobart, and these two undergraduates, having been duly initiated, held their first meeting on the evening of June 16, 1836. This meeting was presided over by the Rt. Rev. Arthur Cleveland Coxe, then an active member of the Urban Chapter, connected with the University of the City of New York. The Columbia Chapter began that night to exert an influence which has since been felt in the pulpit, in foreign courts, on the bench, at the bar, in the legislature, in the professor's chair, and in business. At that session there were initiated: Harvey Augustus Weed, '36; Giles Mumford Hillyer, '36; Henry McVickar, '36, and Nathaniel William Chittenden, '38.

At this time the Alpha Delta Phi stood alone in Columbia, and the rapid growth and increasing influence of this secret brotherhood served only to deepen the jealousy of the uninitiated. At length the Chapter numbered thirty-three, nearly all of whom remained active members to the last, and their progress excited such unpleasant feelings between classmates, that the Chapter returned its charter to the archives of the Fraternity, having reached the fourth year of its existence.

An interval of forty years now succeeded, during which the original members attained eminence in their several callings. Six entered the ministry; seventeen pursued the study of law and have since acquitted themselves with distinction; one of whom, John Jay, has worthily and efficiently represented his country as United States Minister Plenipotentiary to Austria. Three of them have been elevated to the bench: Samuel Blatchford, who declined the Judgeship of the Supreme Court of New York, in 1855, when so appointed by Governor Morgan H. Clark, but who is now Circuit Judge of the United States for the Second Judicial Circuit; the late Hon. John Vanderbilt, at one time New York State Senator, and afterwards Judge of the County of Kings, N. Y.; and the Hon. James Walker Fowler, Justice of the District Court, in the City of New York, for the Third Judicial District. Two have filled the professor's chair with well-merited success in New York — Professors John MacMullen and William Henry Leggett. Two became bankers, well known in Wall street circles.

From time to time applications for a charter of Alpha Delta Phi were received from students of Columbia College; but none, however, met the entire approval of the Fraternity until the reception of the petition of the reorganizers of the Chapter.

With the surviving brothers and the Fraternity at large to encourage them, eight undergraduates assumed the task of reëstablishing Alpha Delta Phi in Columbia. The initiation ceremony took place Wednesday evening, May 18, 1881, in the Masonic Temple, corner of 23d street and 6th avenue. It was conducted by representatives from the following sister Chapters: Hamilton, Yale, Amherst, Harvard, Geneva, Peninsular, Dartmouth, Williams, Manhattan, Middletown, Kenyon, Union, Cornell and Phi Kappa. There were present one hundred and ten members of the Fraternity. Conspicuous among the speakers, after the exercises of the initiation, were Professor George B. Newcomb, Williams, '56; Daniel Huntington, Hamilton, '36; Professor John MacMullen, Columbia, '37; Hon. David R. Jaques, Harvard, '42; Professor Charles Sprague Smith, Amherst, '74; Theodore L. Mead, Cornell, '77. The Chapter is now fully established and confident of a brilliant future.

THE YALE CHAPTER,

1837 TO 1874.

Annals.

The Yale Chapter, in its origin, like the three which preceded it in the organization of the affiliated Chapters of the Fraternity, was established by members of the Hamilton Chapter, who had gone out from the parent Chapter, carrying with them the authority to organize a new Chapter. Its charter members were, therefore, themselves initiates, and its first recognition by the Fraternity in convention assembled antedates by nearly a year the date which has been in the past assigned to its organization. The charter of the Columbia Chapter issued earlier from the central authority of the Fraternity, and decides its priority; but the first meeting of the Yale Chapter was held before that of Columbia. Represented in the First Convention of the Fraternity, held in its fourth year, with the Hamilton Chapter, at Utica, July 27, 1836, by Seth Tryon Wilbur, the Yale Chapter continued for thirty-seven years an active Chapter of the Fraternity, whose members still maintain their relations with its public work and private enterprises, now that its active functions are suspended.

“Soon after the Chapter was established at Yale,” says Dr. I. N. Tarbox, of '39, “there sprang up an odd and funny society in opposition. The beautiful pin worn by the members of the Alpha Delta Phi was imitated with a pin made of tin, and costing six and a quarter cents. The tin was first painted black, and then the paint was scratched off to give the crescent and the star. The first article of the constitution of the new society read, ‘There shall be no president of this society.’ The articles that followed, pertaining to other customary officers, had the same negative cast. The conclusion of the whole was that 'every member should do exactly as he had a mind to.'

"However, our Chapter suffered no harm from this innocent ridicule. Indeed, it rather brought us into notice, and made us conspicuous on the college grounds. My class being that of 1839, the time soon came, after the establishment of the Chapter, for initiating members from my class. From the first the society aimed at a high range of literary excellence. In the preparation of papers to be read at the meetings, each man felt that the obligation was upon him to do his best. There was, perhaps, full enough of self-congratulation and mutual admiration among our members at the choice character of our membership. That, however, is natural to young men in such associations. They want the action and the friction of the great world to bring them to a more democratic estimate of themselves and each other. I look back, however, over the space of more than forty years, with great pleasure to those evenings when, gathered in our society room, we gave ourselves to literary work of a true and genuine order. I think we might, without impropriety, appropriate the noble words of Cowley:—

'Say, for you saw us, ye immortal lights,
How oft unwearied have we spent the nights
Till the Lædæan stars, so fam'd for love,
Wondered at us from above?
We spent them not in toys, in lusts, or wine,
But search of deep philosophy,
Wit, eloquence, and poetry;
Arts which I loved, for they, my friend, were thine.'"

The Second Convention of the Fraternity, assembled in its seventh year, was held with the Yale Chapter, August 15, 1839, and its public exercises consisted of an address by Samuel Eells, the first of those public celebrations by affiliated fraternities which have now become an annual and normal part of their history. Large in numbers, strong in character, at a prominent institution, the Yale Chapter, in the earlier years of the Fraternity, bore a prominent share in shaping its policy. The Brunonian Chapter was established by a delegation from the Yale Chapter, and the conversion of a local society, I T K, at Amherst, into a chapter of the Alpha Delta Phi was largely due to the efforts of the Yale Chapter,—efforts which ripened into close and intimate relations, only severed by the suspension of the latter Chapter, in 1873. The first catalogue and the first song book of the Fraternity were issued from Yale, and until 1860 all the catalogues of the Fraternity were compiled in the same Chapter, with two exceptions.

The list of members which follows these brief Annals sufficiently attests the character, the ability, and the worth of those who filled the ranks of the Chapter for thirty-seven years. Its meetings were for many years, and to the close of the Chapter, held in a hall on the southwest corner of Chapel and State streets, and the exercises of three conventions, in 1847, 1856, and 1869, were held in this hall. In 1867 this hall was newly fitted, and bore, until other Chapters established themselves in halls of their own, the reputation of being the best occupied in the Fraternity. The Yale Chapter suspended its active functions in the spring term of 1873, and a formal surrender of its charter was made to the convention held in the same year with the Cornell Chapter. The step had been for several years in contemplation by the Chapter. It was taken at last after a conference between members of the Amherst and Yale Chapters, in which all present agreed to the necessity of a step, regretted, but on all accounts justified by the circumstances of the case, and a due regard to the reputation of the Chapter in the past, its membership in the present, and its interests in the future.

The honors won by members of the Fraternity at Yale during thirty-seven years included, among other prizes, twelve valedictorians and fourteen salutatorians, and four DeForest men during the shorter period in which that prize was awarded.

THE AMHERST CHAPTER,

1837 TO 1885.

Annals.

The germ of the Amherst Chapter of $\Lambda \Upsilon \Phi$ was a society known as the $I H K$. This was an association for the study of history, and was formed on September 14, 1835, by eleven members of the class of 1837. The $I H K$ society flourished, in spite of the opposition of the uninitiated, for about a year, until two members of $\Lambda \Upsilon \Phi$ from Yale, namely, Charles J. Lynde and William B. Peck, came to Amherst and opened negotiations with the members of $I H K$ for the establishment of a chapter of our Fraternity. Their propositions met with little favor at first; but one by one the $I H K$'s were gained over to $\Lambda \Upsilon \Phi$ and continued members of both Fraternities for two or three months. During this period there was frequent discussion regarding the merits of the two societies, but at last all, except two of the local organizations, voted that the constitution of $I H K$ be held void, and that of $\Lambda \Upsilon \Phi$ adopted in its stead.

The first meeting of the Chapter, as such, was held in the room of one of its members on January 9, 1837. Soon afterwards, a room on the fourth floor of South College was obtained for the use of the society, and this continued to be the home of the Chapter till the winter of 1841-42, when the society moved to the second story of what is now North College, where it had its headquarters for more than twenty years.

Perhaps the most important event in the early history of the Amherst Chapter was its conflict with the Faculty of the College. The existence of a secret society had been viewed with suspicion for several years, but it was not until 1842 that a formal demand was made for an examination of the constitution and records. This was refused by the Chapter; the brothers declaring their willingness to leave College rather than be false to their pledge. After several attempts to gain access to the records of the society, the Faculty allowed the matter to drop for the time being, thinking that the loss of so many students would be a serious blow to the College in its comparatively feeble state. Three years later the demand was again renewed, and, after much discussion, neither side being willing to yield, the question was finally set at rest by the initiation of Dr. Hitchcock, the President of the College, on November 15, 1845. Since that time the relations of the Chapter and the Faculty have been always of the most friendly character.

During the first five years of the Chapter's history its membership was confined to the Senior and Junior classes. But the advent of another Fraternity, in 1841, and the rivalry which sprang up between the two societies, compelled the admission of Sophomores and Freshmen. Since that time the Chapter has consisted of members of all four classes, chosen, for the most part, at the beginning of Freshman year. Until 1879, however, the two lower delegations did not wear the badge of the Fraternity.

The growth of the Chapter turned the attention of the brothers, in 1857, to the necessity of securing a larger and more convenient place for holding their meetings; but it was several years before sufficient money was raised to enable them to carry out their wishes. The upper half of a two-story block located near the post-office, on the principal street of the village, was purchased and fitted up for the use of the Chapter. The first meeting in the new hall was held on October 30, 1863, and it continued in use until its destruction by fire, in 1879.

Although provided with a comfortable place of meeting, the brothers had long felt the desirability of a home where a large part of the members could lodge together and the social element of Chapter life be more fully brought out. Accordingly, in 1873, they entered into negotiations to secure a house and grounds. These efforts resulted in the purchase of the present Chapter House, in 1874, and the society took possession of its new property in August, 1875. This continues to be the home of the greater number of the members, and has been a source of constant benefit to the Chapter.

The great fire on the morning of July 4, 1879, which swept away the business part of Amherst, did not spare A J Φ. The hall, around which so many pleasant memories had gathered, was entirely destroyed; but the Chapter had the good fortune to save all its records. The pecuniary loss was largely covered by insurance. Immediately after the fire the society fitted up its present place of meeting, in the Chapter House.

Up to 1881 the business affairs of the Chapter had been conducted by the Chapter itself or by trustees whom it appointed; but in July of that year incorporation under the laws of the State was secured. The management is now vested in a board of directors, elected both from the alumni and the undergraduates.

Such is a brief outline of the external progress of the Amherst Chapter. To its high stand in scholarship the following partial list of college awards received abundantly witnesses. Of fifty-four valedictory honors (or equivalent in cases where the valedictorian was chosen by lot), — two or more men having the same rank — from 1838 to 1880,* A J Φ has taken twenty-nine; and of forty-three salutatorians, in the same period, this society has had twenty. At fourteen commencements both valedictorian and salutatorian have come from the same society. A J Φ has taken this double honor twelve times out of the fourteen. Of the twelve Hyde Prizes for Senior Orators given since their commencement with the class of 1870, A J Φ has had six. Bond Prizes, for best Commencement Orations, A J Φ has secured four; no other society more than one. Porter Prizes, for best Entrance Examinations, out of nineteen given, this Chapter has had eight. Kellogg Prizes, given to Sophomores and Freshmen for Declamation at public trial, of a total of twenty prizes, six have gone to A J Φ. Of one hundred contestants for these prizes (chosen also by competition), twenty-eight have been members of this Chapter.

THE BRUNONIAN CHAPTER,

1836 TO 1885.

Annals.

The Brunonian Chapter places the date of its organization back among the early years of the Fraternity. The spirit of extension, which was active at that period, found in Brown University a field worthy of cultivation. In 1836 certain students of Brown petitioned for a charter from the Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity, and presently secured the grant. In the autumn of that year, Giles Mumford Hillyer, Columbia, '36, Seth Tryon Wilbur, Hamilton, '36, and afterwards Yale, '37, and William Alexander Sparks, Yale, '37, came to Providence with delegated authority, and formally instituted the Brunonian Chapter. Meetings were held weekly on Saturday mornings, and were of a character to call up most pleasant memories in the minds of our alumni who were then active participants. Members were chosen only from the three upper classes, and no one was accepted until he had proved himself worthy the honor. How just a judgment was used in this selection is evidenced by the character of the membership at that time. It was adherence to this principle, however, which ere long interrupted the growth of the Chapter. Other Fraternities in a year or two established themselves at Brown, and began to receive members from the Freshman class. The alternatives thus offered Alpha Delta Phi for increasing her membership were the sacrifice of the principle she had adopted, or a choice of men from classes already canvassed by rivals. Neither was accepted, and in the autumn of 1838 it was resolved that no further elections be made. For twelve years following no initiations occurred.

In the latter part of 1850, however, steps were taken for the reorganization of the Chapter. At that time there were located at Williams and at Brown the only two New England Chapters of a then small Fraternity. Both were of good standing in their respective colleges, and decided to change their outer connections. The Chapter at Brown took the lead, followed soon after by that at Williams, in seeking place in the Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity. For the ready success which rewarded these efforts, the petitioners at Brown were indebted to Melancthon Storrs and Delano Alexander Goddard, members of Brown University, and afterwards Alpha Deltas at Yale, graduating respectively in the classes of '52 and '53; to the cordial assistance of the Yale Chapter; and finally to the former reputation of "Brunonian," and the hearty coöperation of its graduates.

On the evening of April 15, 1851, William Wallace Crapo, Yale, '52, by authority of the Fraternity, met in Providence, and initiated as members of Alpha Delta Phi the following gentlemen, students in Brown University:—

There grew up almost immediately a thorough sympathy between the new initiates and their predecessors of a dozen years. The aims, and largely the methods, were identical; the same spirit breathed in the revived body, so that despite the interval of years there seemed to have been no break in the line of succession. Indeed, from the beginning to the present, unity of purpose — and that a noble purpose — has, we believe, marked the history of “Brunonian,” and our best hope for the future lies in the strength of this ruling principle. Of the deep, inner life of the Chapter no record may be put into words; it is clearly written in the heart of every true brother Alpha Delt. The high resolves inspired, the noble thoughts cherished, the pure and lasting friendships formed, have made fellowship in Alpha Delta Phi to many in preceding, as may it prove to many in succeeding, classes the choicest treasure of college days.

Among the honors won for their Chapter and the Fraternity have been: —

THE HARVARD CHAPTER,

1837 TO 1884.

Annals.

In 1836 there was in Harvard College no purely literary society to which Seniors and Juniors belonged as active members. The Hasty Pudding, the Porcellian, and other clubs were convivial or dramatic clubs, and active membership in the Institute and I. O. H., — which were debating societies rather than literary societies — ceased with the Sophomore year. There existed at the same time a good nucleus for such an organization in the committee of editors of Harvardiana, a College monthly, which was conducted with some spirit by the classes of '35, '36, '37 and '38. The editors of Harvardiana, in '37 and '38, were men of decided ability. They were Horatio Emmons Hale, Charles Hayward, Samuel Tenney Hildreth and Charles Stearns Wheeler, of '37, and Nathan Hale, Rufus King, George Warren Lippitt, James Russell Lowell and Charles Woodman Seates, of '38. The suggestion was made to the editors of the class of '37, that they should form a literary society to be affiliated with A J P. They assented to the proposition, and joined to themselves, of their own class, Bacon, Davis, and Eustis, all of whom have since been physicians, and Williams, who has since been a distinguished instructor in Boston. So slight was the communication between one part of the country and another, that the idea of connection between the Chapters had but little weight in men's interest in the society. The wish of these young men was probably to enlarge a little the editorial club, and certainly their selections were good.

The men from '38 chose, as their successors in the society, the five editors of Harvardiana, who were to follow them. These gentlemen added to their number. Coolidge, now a distinguished teacher in Massachusetts, and Eustis, now head of the Scientific School at Harvard. This gave them seven members. '37 had eight. '39 had nine, and '40 again had but eight. Although the publication of Harvardiana ceased with the class of '38, the catalogue shows clearly enough that the rule of selection did not change. The rule of selection was to choose the belles-lettres men, so to speak, of the several classes. Of all the first four classes a person who knew the A J φ members would say at once, that they were men specially interested in literature, or perhaps in music or some other fine art — certainly in the specially liberal studies of the “humanities.”

The club had the decided advantage of being absolutely prohibited by the authorities. The Faculty was not fond of any society in those days, and would have given no permission for the formation of a new one, least of all to the founding of a secret society affiliated with other colleges. The consciousness of this prohibition gave all the more zest to the meetings. The society hired a room in Holyoke Street, and provided the better magazines of the day to make it a reading room. They laid out a good deal of literary work, and they seem to have done it. The standard was rather that of the press than that of public speaking, and the papers written and criticised were written as if for a magazine or review. This was the ideal of the society for many years.

With the class of '65 the society was discontinued at Harvard.

In the winter of 1878-9 the desire sprung up among several of the Juniors and Seniors to reëstablish the society with very much the same wish which had led to its formation at Cambridge. The most active members again were the editors of the College newspapers, and they proposed the reëstablishment of the society. The graduate members, who had always looked with regret on its discontinuance, were well pleased at the idea of a revival. The Convention of 1877, having given powers to a committee, of graduates in February, '79, the chairman of the committee, with the assistance of several members of the Fraternity, initiated four gentlemen from the two upper classes, and gave them power to elect and initiate members into the revived chapter of A Δ ψ.

During the spring of '79 attention was paid chiefly to the election of new members, and to the finding of a house for the Fraternity to occupy. Unfortunately this latter idea could not be carried out. The Fraternity thereupon decided to take the two rooms in Hilton's block, which they now occupy. The new rooms were opened in May, '79, by a reception given to old members of the Harvard and other Chapters.

THE GENEVA CHAPTER,

1840 TO 1876.

Annals.

On the evening of the 23d of March, 1840, Mr. George Underwood and Mr. James W. Taylor, members of the Hamilton Chapter, organized the Geneva Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi, initiating the following men: Walter Ayrault and Augustus B. Cotes from the Senior Class, Egbert Bagg and George L. Pratt from the Junior Class, and Isaiah Horton McCollum from the Sophomore Class, together with Mr. Morse Stewart, a medical student of Penn Yan, and formerly a member of Hamilton College. At the first regular meeting officers were duly elected, and, at a subsequent meeting, John N. Whiting and Charles H. Platt, both of Geneva, and members of the last graduating class, were initiated.

It seems to have been the custom of that time for secret societies to obtain charters, wherever established, from the College authorities, and, in this case, objection having been made by the Faculty, that the specific objects of the society were unknown to any of their body, in May, Rev. Benjamin Hale, D.D., President of the College, was invited to become a member. This invitation was accepted, and, on August 4th, President Hale was duly initiated, and ever remained deeply interested in the Chapter and the society.

The day following Dr. Hale's initiation the first Commencement exercises after the establishment of the Chapter were held, the valedictory oration, the only honor assigned in that class, being pronounced by our Brother Walter Ayrault, — a name now well known in the society as it is in the church. From that day till the closing of the Chapter in May, 1876, the history of the Geneva Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi is, with unimportant exceptions, a record of continued and gratifying success. The Honor List, appended to this sketch, verifies this assertion in part; but it does not show — what all friends of the College are willing to admit — the uprightness, the manliness, the affectionate interest in their Alma Mater which characterized, as a whole, the members of the Geneva Chapter.

The early rule of the society, that no elections or initiations could be made till the third term Sophomore, was soon felt by this Chapter to be a drag. In 1842 we find the Chapter earnestly agitating for a repeal of the rule, and the adoption of one which would leave each Chapter to judge for itself of the time of election and initiation. That the old rule worked disadvantageously to the Chapter in at least one particular, a glance at the Honor Roll will show. Fortunately, the rule was ultimately modified, and the Chapter soon won its way to that position of honorable and enviable prominence in College affairs which it vigorously maintained during the last twenty or twenty-five years of its career.

What the position of the Chapter was in the matter of College Honors and Prizes will be gathered from a study of the complete lists which accompany this history. The members of the Chapter deem the record one of which they have no reason to be ashamed. While it never was the policy of the Chapter to take a man simply for his class standing, it is felt to be a matter of congratulation that the ability to win College honors was so often found conjoined with those other characteristics sought for in the choice of members. It is but fitting to record here that the Master's Oration was first made a part of the Commencement exercises in this College in 1842, and was on that occasion pronounced by Charles Henry Platt, of blessed memory, as loyal to Alpha Delta Phi as he was eloquent, lovable, and manly.

Possibly the most endearing recollections of the members of the Chapter are associated with the Commencement reunions. To the members of the Chapter, the Chapter was known as "Our Lady of the Lake," and, by a pleasant fiction, it was in honor of "Our Lady" that these reunions were held. These reunions grew in interest, strengthening in every heart the love of Alpha Delta Phi, and stirring in all the most laudable ambition. At the last reunion, which was held in 1875, the year before the closing of the Chapter, over sixty brothers sat around the board. It will undoubtedly interest the later members of the Chapter to know that the designation of the Chapter as "Our Lady of the Lake" is probably as old as the Chapter. In a letter, written early in 1842, the designation is used as one long current.

From 1864 to 1873 the Chapter indulged in a navy; and on the waters of the silver Seneca was waged many a contest with "hostile friends" and others. It was a period of great interest in the history of the Chapter. The Alpha Delta Phi navy survived its rivals, and died at last from want of a foe. The champion flag is to-day among the treasures of the Chapter.

This seems the most fitting place to pause and put on record, not a claim of special triumphs, won by the brothers in the social world of Geneva, but a note of sincere acknowledgment of the pleasure with which the members of this Chapter recall the unvarying courtesy and kindness with which they were received in the hospitable homes which grace this College town.

With sister Chapters the Geneva Chapter ever cultivated the most cordial relations; but it felt itself especially bound to Hamilton as its parent, and to Cornell as its child.

The Chapter was closed in May, 1876. It did not die out. On account of unhappy dissensions in the Board of Trustees, a sudden and great reduction in the number of students attending the College took place that year, and, after consultation, it was deemed best to suspend the Chapter. "Our Lady" looks forward, however, to the day when she shall again open her doors and take her place in the golden circle.

Williams, of the class of '41, and Charles F. Hudson and Henry A. Swift, of the class of '42. At the second meeting Professors Elias Loomis and Samuel St. John were made members, so that the Chapter really started with two graduate and six undergraduate members. Before the founding of $\Delta \Delta \Phi$, there had been no secret fraternity at Western Reserve, but the favor with which its coming was regarded by the Faculty of the College is shown by the fact that several of its members became members of the Chapter.

The Chapter continued to flourish, counting among its number many of the strongest and most able men of the College until the years 1857 and 1858, when it became reduced to two or three members on account of the very small number of students then in the College. The charter, however, was not forfeited, and the affairs of the College again brightening, the Chapter once more increased to its former strength, and has since maintained a foremost place among the fraternities at Western Reserve College. Of the forty-one valedictories delivered since the year 1840, twenty-one have been by members of Alpha Delta Phi, besides a corresponding share of salutarities, and other college honors. This year closes the history of the Chapter in Hudson.

The College is to become a part of the Western Reserve University of Cleveland, and at the commencement of next year the Hudson Chapter will be established in its new quarters in that city.

THE BOWDOIN CHAPTER,

1841 TO 1885.

Annals.

It was on a Saturday night in October, 1841, that the Bowdoin Chapter of $A \Delta \Phi$ was established. A letter from one of the principal actors says: "The first Initiation of $A \Delta \Phi$ was held, I think, in a little building on the west side of the road running in front of the College. This building went among the students by the name of the Gothic—sometimes, perhaps, Gothic Hall." It was built during President Allen's time for an academy, and was a unique specimen of Gothic architecture. Here, then, the $A \Delta \Phi$ of Bowdoin came into life. The Charter Members were four: Gardiner, Boody, Clark, Trask, all of the class of 1842. Bro. Gardiner, it appears, had been initiated by the Geneva Chapter; but, as the Harvard Chapter was nearer, he obtained from it authority to establish a Chapter at Bowdoin. He says: "Coming to Bowdoin at the opening of my Senior year, I felt much need of the society. I found several of my classmates disposed to join, and also some from the previous class." It has been thought that the Faculty of the College were opposed to the establishment of secret societies; but they were consulted at the beginning, and they offered no objection. It happened that several of the brothers roomed in the old Gothic, or "Chateau," as it was afterwards called, and from the seclusion of the place this at once became the $A \Delta \Phi$ headquarters. The high standing of the society in its first years can be shown in no better way than by mentioning the names of some of the graduates who became members at that time. Such men as John Orr Fiske, Geo. W. Fields, Gideon S. Palmer, Elijah Kellogg, Henry B. Smith, Geo. F. Magoun, and a score of others, must have given the highest character to the society. It can be truly said of our Chapter that it reached its full manhood in the first five years of its existence. The last meeting held in the Chateau bears the date of July 28, 1845. The meeting of October 16, following, was held in what had already been secured and fitted up as the regular Society Hall, the room over James Cary's jewelry store, opposite the Universalist Church. Great pains were taken to secure secrecy with regard to both place and time of meeting. It was intended that nothing should be known of the society except the badges worn by the members. The remoteness of the place was not, therefore, considered unfavorable. But the new hall did not take the place of the old Chateau. A brother writes: "I know that I but speak the feelings of the hearts of many of you, when I say that I still look back, as the pilgrim does to the home of his childhood, to that old Chateau. 'Twas there our Chapter was formed, and often in days of yore have those old rooms been the scene of thoughts and words and feelings which pass away, and leave their impress forever on the heart.

" And oft in my future years,
I'll sit and shut my eyes,
And my heart will travel back again
Where those pointed arches rise."

About 1855 the society removed to a room nearer College, situated over the store now occupied by E. Smith. In October, 1874, the hall which we now occupy was dedicated.

In the fall of 1845 Freshmen were first admitted. Previous to this the society had been a Junior society, initiating its members regularly at the close of the Sophomore year, just as the Seniors were taking their leave. But in the meantime other secret societies had sprung up, and the rivalry that existed made the new step advisable.

Before secret societies were introduced into Bowdoin, there had existed two literary societies—the Peucinian and Athenæan. They had exerted a great influence in the early days of the College, and were very dear to many of the graduates. As secret societies increased in number and influence, the interest in these old institutions diminished. It was long evident that a severe contest would come sooner or later, and it did come in the fall of 1857. The opponents of secret societies used every means in their power against A J ϕ and like institutions. One of the brothers writes: "The movement threatened the greatest evil — imperilling the very existence of A J ϕ in Bowdoin." But the old standard was raised by the few loyal ones, and help came from every quarter, giving complete victory.

Forty-one years have passed, more than the average time of a generation of men, since A J ϕ was established in Bowdoin. As we have had occasion during the past year to review the lives and deeds of our predecessors in the society, we have been deeply gratified to see the honorable positions which they are holding in the world. Not a few have attained eminence. Looking over the list we find four College Presidents, and twenty-five College Professors. In the late war the Bowdoin Chapter was represented by over forty men who, almost without exception, were officers. In scholarship we have stood on a level with any other society — certainly far ahead of some. The society has never been a hindrance to scholarly attainments, but has always encouraged them. The smallness of our College, and the quietness of the town in which our institution is situated, cause us to seek our enjoyment among ourselves. The social influences in the College must, therefore, mould the student to a great degree. Long years ago a brother gave us a maxim, which seems to have been kept supreme: "It takes a head and a heart to make a man, and he who has but one of these is at best but half a man." The influence which A J ϕ exerts over her sons is second to none in the College, and this influence has always been ennobling.

THE DARTMOUTH CHAPTER,

1845 TO 1884.

Annals.

During the College year 1842-3, the T J Θ Society was organized with fourteen members, all from the Sophomore Class. In the autumn of 1844 this society entered into correspondence with the Amherst Chapter of A J Φ, with a view of converting the T J Θ into a Chapter of the A J Φ. Mr. George H. Palmer, of the Class of '45, was sent to Amherst to confer upon the subject. The Amherst Chapter seemed to favor such a change; but no definite results were reached. After the Class of '45 had been graduated, the matter was taken in hand by Isaac W. Smith, of the Class of '46, now Judge of the Supreme Court of New Hampshire.

Mr. Smith secured the active coöperation of a personal friend, Mr. William B. Capron, a member of the Yale Chapter of A J Φ. A correspondence with Mr. Capron resulted in securing a charter for the Dartmouth Chapter, through the influence of the Yale Chapter. In March, 1846, Mr. Henry T. Steele and Mr. Charles A. Nichols, of Yale, came to Hanover, organized the Dartmouth Chapter, and initiated the charter members. The initiation took place at the house of Prof. E. D. Sanborn, in the room which he has now for many years occupied as a study.

Soon after its organization, the new Chapter fitted up rooms on the third floor of Dartmouth Hall, and these it continued to occupy until September, 1872, when it took possession of the new and beautiful Chapter House built by the Alumni. The rooms in Dartmouth Hall were neat and convenient; but with the growth of the College other societies located in larger and more elegant quarters, one of them building a handsome hall for its exclusive use. On this account the Chapter suffered somewhat in comparison with other societies. This fact becoming known to the graduate brothers, a movement was inaugurated to build a hall which should furnish elegant and ample accommodations for the Chapter, and be its permanent home.

This movement awakened a lively interest and elicited liberal contributions, so that the local committee soon felt authorized in laying the foundations of the new Chapter House. Generous contributions were made by many of the brethren; but the largest individual subscribers to the building fund were Brother Horatio N. Twombly, of New York, of the Class of '54, whose subscription at the outset decided the question of building, and who has since increased his gift; and Brother William W. Niles, of New York, of the class of '45, who has recently given largely to cancel the debt.

To the untiring perseverance of Prof. Charles F. Emerson, of the class of '68, who has had the matter in charge from the first, the Chapter is largely indebted for the success of the enterprise.

The Chapter House is a handsome brick structure, two stories in height, the first floor being divided into four suites of rooms, occupied by brothers of the Chapter, the entire second floor being taken up by the hall and anterooms. The hall is large, handsomely decorated and furnished, and admirably adapted to the purposes for which it was intended. The building is supplied with water, heated by furnaces, and lighted by gas. It is located near Culver Hall, a little east of the spot where the Burke House formerly stood.

It has been the aim of the Chapter from the beginning not so much to secure numbers as to bring in young men of manly character and high scholarship. It has always been, and is to-day, a scholarly and manly society.

Since the erection of the new Chapter House, A J Φ at Dartmouth has received a new impulse, and is to-day on the high tide of prosperity, full of brilliant promise for the future.

It supplements, in the best way, the training afforded by the College. and this fact is clearly recognized alike by faculty, alumni and students. Our graduate brothers look back with joy and pride to the days of A J ψ , feeling that they are largely its debtors, not only for literary training, but for a powerful impulse towards nobler living, and friendship that shall never end.

The following partial list of the honors won by the members of the Dartmouth Chapter before graduation begins at 1865, no prizes having been given before that date, and the prizes since then having varied in number and importance during different years.

THE PENINSULAR CHAPTER,

1846 TO 1885.

Annals.

On the 12th of June, 1846, a letter was written by William H. Goodrich, Yale, '43, who was at that time the Secretary of the Council, to Rufus Nutting, Jr., Hudson, '43, authorizing him to establish a Chapter of A J Φ at the University of Michigan. Brother Nutting doubtless delegated his authority to others; for we learn that on the afternoon of the 5th of August, 1846, directly after the conferring of diplomas, Henry A. Swift, Hudson, '42, in company with Rev. Robert R. Kellogg, Urban, '35, headed the most important procession that aspirants to membership in the Peninsular Chapter of A J Φ ever formed, and led it to a little office just off the College grounds. There our forefathers were duly initiated, and the Peninsular Chapter of our Fraternity was organized.

The Charter Members are, Charles A. Clark, '45; Edmund Fish, '45; Hon. Winfield Smith, '46; Hon. Adonijah S. Welch, '46; Samuel S. Hall, '47; James A. Duncan, '48; and Wells R. Marsh, '48. For some years thereafter the members of the Chapter continued to hold meetings about once a month, but with little regularity as to their recurrence apparently, until 1858, when the members began to gather together with the same frequency and regularity as are now observed.

The brothers seem to have assembled at first wherever a place was available, usually in one of the dormitories, and occasionally in some room in the hotel, until Charles W. Becker, '52, kindly allowed them the use of a room in his house at Ann Arbor. About 1854 the members of the Chapter rented a session room, and have continued to do so ever since, with three or four changes in its locality. We were finally established in our present quarters in 1864.

The internal economy of the Chapter, however, was of minor importance in its early years, in comparison with its long and successful struggle for existence with the authorities of the University, from 1847 to 1852, a contest carried on with unflinching courage by our predecessors, into whose labors we enter. Unable to obtain definite consent to the existence of the Chapter in connection with the University, Dr. Kellogg advised that a branch of the Chapter be established in Ann Arbor, independent of the College, — advice followed in the organization. In the College year 1845–6, however, the Faculty passed a law, providing, among other things, that no student could be admitted into any class without signing a pledge that he would not be a member of any secret society not approved by the Faculty. The brothers realized the invalidity of this proscription, both on account of our non-identification with the University, and as terms of admission to that institution could be qualified only by the Legislature and Board of Regents, and did not hesitate to swell their ranks with newly initiated men.

An attempt to enforce this regulation in the spring of 1847, under threat of expulsion, was followed by a compromise, under which the Chapter waived its claim to non-connection with the University, and acknowledged the twentieth rule passed by the Regents, which demanded that a secret society's existence should depend upon the Faculty's approval, and the Faculty determined that it "had no power to legalize the Fraternity under the rules," thus confessing its lack of authority over the Chapter. The compromise did not long continue, and, after the class of '49 was graduated, the contest was renewed by expelling all the members of secret societies in College. The struggle which followed engaged the attention of the State and its press, and ended in the restoration of the expelled students to the University.

Frequent assertions of its rights on the part of the Chapter, and as frequent denials of the same by the Faculty, occupied the fall of 1850 and the winter of 1850–1. In the early part of the spring the Faculty again resorted to the extremity of expelling the undergraduates, and readmitted them only on their consenting to refrain from exercising their rights of membership until after graduation. Our numbers were thus reduced to three; but these were as good as a host, strengthened as they were by their resolute determination and a decided public sentiment in their favor. The Faculty demanded the privilege of inspecting the constitution; the Chapter refused, and the struggle ended in the full and complete recognition of the Chapter by the Faculty as of legal and regular standing in the University, with the single reservation that the College authorities should be informed of the time of meeting and the name of the president.

The next twenty years passed away quietly and prosperously. We find the delegations larger, the society work well attended to, and all the marks of general prosperity. The general convention of the Fraternity was held with Peninsular Chapter in 1872. In 1873 the Chapter began to agitate the matter of building a lodge, and at that time a decided step was taken, many subscriptions being made both by the active members and by the graduate brothers. The financial panic, which immediately followed, made it impossible to proceed further, and nothing of importance was done in this regard till 1879. Early in this year the "Peninsular Society," consisting principally of graduate members, received a charter from the State, and the members began work in earnest once more. In 1880 enough had been collected to purchase a lot, which is now held by the Chapter as a building site.

A new departure in Ann Arbor society life was made in the fall of 1875, when the Chapter rented as a Chapter House the so-called "Octagon." Since that time, with the exception of a month or two in 1877, most of the active members have lived together, making the most of the advantages possessed, hoping some time to have a house, the property of the Chapter.

The last thirty years of our history have been uneventful; but, perhaps, on that account the more happy and prosperous. May the future, in broader usefulness and more abundant prosperity, repeat the achievements, the acquirements, and the grateful intimacy of the past in Alpha Delta Phi.

THE ROCHESTER CHAPTER,

1850 TO 1885.

Annals.

In the winter of 1849-50 the Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity decided to establish a Chapter at Madison University, located at Hamilton, N. Y. A charter was granted, and twelve students of Madison University were initiated, by the Hamilton Chapter, into the mysteries of Alpha Delta Phi. They rode over from Hamilton to Clinton one evening in a sleigh, were initiated, and got back the next morning in time for early chapel. The new Chapter began holding regular meetings, and seemed destined to a prosperous future. Many of the friends of Madison University, however, thought its location, for many reasons, unfortunate; and this, combined with other causes, induced a majority of the professors and students of Madison University to secede from the College, and, coming to Rochester, to found the institution known as the University of Rochester. All but two (who had graduated) of the members of the newly formed Chapter were among the students who left Madison for Rochester. An application was immediately made to the society for a charter for a Chapter at the new University, and regular meetings were held, though no new members were initiated. After much trouble and delay a charter was obtained; and, under the name of the Empire Chapter, the Alpha Delta Phi Society was formally established at the University of Rochester, in the spring of the year 1851. Some opposition on the part of the Faculty, who had passed an anti-secret society resolution, was at first experienced; but when it was discovered that a Chapter was already in active operation, they gracefully yielded; the acting President, Dr. A. C. Kendrick, in announcing their decision, paying a glowing tribute to the memory of Samuel Eells, who had been his classmate and room-mate at Hamilton College.

The first meetings were held in the parlor of the old National Hotel, on the corner of Buffalo (now West Main) and Fitzhugh Streets, which was used as a Chapter Hall until the Chapter became strong enough to rent a suitable hall of its own. A room was finally obtained on Buffalo Street, near the old University building, which was used as a Chapter Hall until 1861, when the hall now occupied by the Chapter was rented, and especially constructed for the Chapter, in the building then being erected on the corner of East Main and South St. Paul Streets.

The career of the Chapter has, on the whole, been extremely prosperous. During the first years of its existence, the College being poor and there being comparatively few students, it suffered many hardships, being reduced at one time to an active membership of three men. As the College became richer and more prosperous the Chapter became stronger in proportion, and now occupies a secure and honorable position among the institutions of the University of Rochester.

The Chapter was at first called the Empire Chapter, and this name was retained until about 1860, when it was changed to the present name of the Rochester Chapter.

Two conventions of the Fraternity have been held with the Rochester Chapter, — a special Convention in 1864, and the General Convention of 1880. The latter was one of the great events in the history of the Chapter, and will long be remembered by those who took part in it. On the evening preceding the public exercises a reception was given the delegates from the various Chapters, in Powers' Art Gallery, by the wives of the Alpha Delta Phi resident in Rochester. Twelve hundred invitations were issued, and the result was a most brilliant affair. The public exercises were held in the Corinthian Academy of Music, and were under the charge of the Rt. Rev. A. C. Coxe, D.D., Urban, 1838. Besides Bishop Coxe, the society was addressed by the Hon. Francis A. Macomber, Rochester, 1859; the Rev. Walter Ayrault, D.D., Geneva, 1840; the Hon. Joseph M. Bailey, LL.D., Rochester, 1854; and the Hon. Ellis H. Roberts, LL.D., Yale, 1850.

In the Faculty of the University the Society has been represented by the late President John H. Raymond, of Vassar College (1850-56), Hamilton, 1837; Prof. Otis H. Robinson (1864), Rochester, 1861; Prof. Adoniram J. Sage (1870-2), Rochester, 1860; and Prof. William C. Morey (1872), Rochester, 1868.

Socially the Chapter has always striven to maintain the principles of the society; and, while not neglecting its literary work, has made the social side of the society life a thing to be looked back to with pleasure by all its members.

As the University of Rochester has never appointed Salutatorians or Valedictorians, and the class averages of the students are kept secret, the only means of obtaining a knowledge of the scholarship of the Chapter is from a comparison of the prizes taken by it. In this respect the Alpha Delta Phi Society at Rochester is, without dispute, the first. Out of the whole number of prizes awarded by the University, more than two-fifths of all have been taken by Alpha Delta Phi. A summary of all the prizes awarded by the University is appended, together with a list of all the prizes taken by Alpha Delta Phi.

THE ALABAMA CHAPTER,

1851 TO 1859.

Annals.

The Alabama Chapter was established at the University of Alabama, in 1851, by members of the Senior Class, and remained for seven years an active and flourishing Chapter of the Fraternity, doing its appointed work, although at a distance from other Chapters and removed from immediate and frequent contact with them. The lively interest felt in the Chapter, and its firm hold upon the affections of its members, have been sufficiently attested in the correspondence of the compiler with its surviving members, whose result is apparent in the full record of the Chapter inscribed below. In 1858 the Faculty of the College prohibited secret societies, and the Chapter suspended its active functions. The graduate members of the Chapter met immediately after this occurrence at Shelby Springs, Ala., and organized a graduate association; but the war, in which nearly every member of the Chapter served under the Confederate colors, early brought the annual reunions to a close. As the buildings, records and library of the University were burned by Federal troops during the war, these sources of information as to the College honors won by the Chapter are cut off, and the record below, even where it indicates the University degrees of the members, has been compiled by diligent personal inquiry.

The arrangement of members by classes, as originally furnished by the Chapter to the Alpha Delta Phi Catalogue committees in charge of the catalogues of 1854, 1857 and 1860, is retained below, although it does not agree with the University Register. As the latter was largely compiled from memory, it was felt to be safer to follow the written record, which has survived the war. The degrees, as recorded in the Register, are, however, given under each name where the year stated there differs from the class year in this catalogue.

To the friends and kin of our deceased brothers the thanks of the Chapter are due for the information, whose results are given below. The special acknowledgment of the Fraternity is also due to Prof. John M. Martin, of Alabama University, for assistance in tracing the records of the deceased and the living. Brother Somerville, whose connection with the Chapter was intimate, has also been of constant aid in compiling this record.

THE WILLIAMS CHAPTER,

1851 TO 1885.

Annals.

Like Brunonian, the Williams Chapter succeeded a Chapter of a western college Fraternity whose other Chapters, all in western colleges, enjoyed a high position and an excellent reputation. After conference with Brunonian, and acting upon a common understanding, application was made for a charter in Alpha Delta Phi. About the middle of December, 1850, the Brown Chapter petitioned for admission, and in March, 1851, was admitted. Owing to unavoidable circumstances the Chapter here could not send in its petition till after the Brown Chapter had been admitted.

Meantime there had been formed in this College a union of worthy men, and a petition from them for admission into the Alpha Delta Phi Society had been laid before the Yale Chapter a little before the petition from those who had constituted the Chapter of the Western Fraternity, and to the first petition a favorable reception was immediately given. At this juncture the action of the two organizations became known to each other, and proposals were at once made for union, which, however, was not effected till the Yale Chapter had sent Mr. W. W. Crapo as a delegate, to make a definite arrangement between the two, and then a new petition was drawn up and signed by individuals of both organizations. An answer to this petition was long expected with great impatience, but on account of some delays it was not till the 1st of July that it was received. On the evening of that day Messrs. W. W. Crapo and D. C. Gilman, delegates from the Alpha Delta Phi at Yale, unexpectedly arrived, bringing with them the charter empowering the formation of a Chapter in

Williams College. On the same night, at a late hour, the following persons were duly initiated and formed into a Chapter, under the name of the Williams Chapter:—

Seniors. — George Ellery Clarke, Seth Mooar Dunning, Samuel Bushnell Goodale, James Kellogg Mills, George Mooar, Charles Newman, Jackson Temple, Samuel Williams.

Juniors. — John Stockman Batchelder, John Woodbridge Dickinson, Henry Martyn Hazeltine, Arthur Latham Perry, Charles Perry.

Afterwards, on the evening of July 8, Hiram LaMotte Lewis, Junior, and Charles Franklin Gilson, Sophomore, who were absent at the formation of the Chapter, were initiated at a special meeting.

Owing to the lack of a sufficient number of badges, the society did not “swing” until July 9. Tradition says that a College meeting had been called for the morning of that day, in which twenty-seven $\Lambda \Delta \Phi$ badges were displayed. This was the first intimation in College of what had been done, and so amazed and bewildered were the students at the formation among them, and without their knowledge, of a Chapter of so strong and powerful a Fraternity as $\Lambda \Delta \Phi$, that the meeting broke up without attending to the business for which it had been called, and the absorbing topic of the day throughout the College was the new society.

The society had had various lodges up to 1865, when the subject of the erection of a hall was broached. Nothing was done until the reunion of 1866, when three thousand dollars were subscribed, and a committee appointed to take the matter in charge. Active measures were taken, but it was not until the fall of 1868 that ground for the present structure was broken. The work was pushed along, until, in October, 1869, the permanent home of the Chapter was completed. On the fifth day of November the hall was dedicated to $\Lambda \Delta \Phi$.

The undergraduates of succeeding classes, not being wholly satisfied with the internal arrangement of the building, offered, at the Commencement of 1875, to make such alterations as would make it satisfactory, on condition that the alumni would furnish and decorate the building. The proposition was accepted. In 1880 a handsome porch was erected to the memory of James Ruthven Adriance, '78, by his family and members of $\Delta \Lambda \psi$ associated with him in College.

The principal honors have been won by : —

THE MANHATTAN CHAPTER,

1855 to 1885.

Annals.

On the evening of March 9, 1855, eleven members of the New York Free Academy assembled at the Collamore House, Broadway, and there met Messrs. Henry D. Root and William W. Goodrich, then graduates of the Amherst Chapter, who avowed themselves so much pleased with the spirit manifested by the men there assembled, that they pledged themselves to use their whole influence with their own and other Chapters to obtain a charter for the petitioners.

As a consequence of this meeting an application for membership in the Fraternity was drawn up by William H. Abel and Franklin S. Rising — a committee appointed for that purpose — and presented to the Amherst Chapter. The affirmative answer of that Chapter was received on April 6, 1855, and the other Chapters having signified their approbation, a charter was issued, dated July 9, 1855, and the evening of Monday, July 9, 1855, was chosen for the initiation of the new Chapter, at which time the ceremony was performed; and Manhattan Chapter held its first regular meeting on Thursday, July 12, 1855, at the residence of Brother Simeon Baldwin, Jr., No. 48 East 25th Street.

The appearance of Brothers Rising and Baldwin at the next Convention, at Cambridge, was the signal for a most gratifying reception to the delegates from the new Chapter. The fact that the inauguration of the Chapter was so long delayed after the application was a most unfortunate one, as eight of the eleven founders, as well as the only member yet initiated by them, Brother Benjamin F. Lee, graduated at the following Commencement, leaving only Brothers F. S. Rising, Russell Sturgis, Jr., and J. L. Van Buren as active members. But the brothers worked hard and earnestly, and at the next initiation, which took place on Friday, October 11, 1855, seven new brothers, of the classes of '54, '55, '57 and '59, were admitted into the bonds of our Fraternity.

From this time onward the Chapter prospered, and on February 19, 1856, held its first meeting in its new rooms, No. 809 Broadway, as yet not entirely furnished. After the completion of the hall a special dedicatory meeting was held May 29, 1856, at which brothers from the Hamilton, Columbia, Urban, Yale, Amherst, Harvard, Williams, Dartmouth and Geneva Chapters were present. Further on, the rooms were completely furnished; a comfortable retreat was furnished to the ardent Alpha Deltas, who were not slow to embrace the opportunity, and afternoon social gatherings became a regular feature of the Fraternity life.

On June 24 and 25, 1857, the Twenty-fifth Annual Convention was held in New York City. The occasion was a great one in the Fraternity, and Manhattan Chapter received great benefit thereby. Her part in the ceremonies of the occasion was no slight one, and she saw, as a Chapter, for the first time, what the true Alpha Delt spirit was.

At the meeting of March 10, 1858, the Chapter mourned the first gap in its ranks, made by the death of one of its most devoted brothers — Matthew James Blakeley, of the class of '58 — and appropriate resolutions were passed. The Chapter in a body attended the funeral on the next day, ten brothers acting as pall-bearers.

For a long time the Chapter held the even tenor of its way, nothing especially worthy of note occurring until in May, 1859, it received notice that the initiation of the Union Chapter was to be entrusted to Manhattan. Bros. James Weir Mason, Adolph Werner and Henry Kirke White were the Committee for the Chapter, and on the 8th of July seventeen men of that College were duly initiated. In the latter part of this year the Graduate Chapter in New York, so long a noted, useful, and helpful body of brothers. first met as an organized body.

From this time onward no event of great moment has broken the quiet and beauty of our fraternal life. The Chapter has been in the most prosperous condition. Assisted, overlooked and advised by the Graduate Chapter, and sustained by its thorough and universal fraternal spirit, it is in the present, as it always has been in the past, a Chapter acting, as far as possible, up to the aims of Samuel Eells, and one with a hearty love and sincere admiration for Alpha Delta Phi.

Manhattan Chapter has taken nine Valedictories, seven Salutatories and twenty-four Honor Oration, besides many other Honorary Oration and Dissertations, in its twenty-six years of existence. The Pell Medals, for general proficiency, were taken thirteen times. The Burr Medals (Mathematics) were taken ten times. The Riggs Medals, for composition (established in 1865), have been taken by Senior A Δ Ψ's seven times, and by Juniors five times. The Sophomore Cromwell Medals have been taken fourteen times, eleven of them firsts. The Kelly Prize Critique has been competed for five times, and four times have A Δ Ψ's won it. Alpha Deltas have taken first prizes twice, and second twice, in the Kelly Prize Debates. In Prize Speaking we have taken eleven prizes. The Lockwood Prize has been won six times. Seven Claflin Prizes have been awarded to us. When money prizes (for a few years only) were awarded, many more than our fair share were taken by A Δ Ψ's. Of the twenty Ward Medals, awarded each year since '59, we have taken a great number; besides other special prizes.

Her nine Valedictorians are: William H. Abel, '55; Charles H. Pratt, '56; Adolph Werner, '57; Charles L. Balch, '60; Charles Roberts, Jr., '62; Clinton J. Hartt, '64; John A. Knapp, '65; Edward C. Henderson, '76; Charles H. Wilson, '77.

THE MIDDLETOWN CHAPTER,

1856 TO 1885.

Annals.

The Middletown Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi was the eighteenth in order of establishment, receiving its Charter on the 31st of July, 1856, and holding its first regular meeting on Saturday evening, August 2. It sprang from the union of two local societies, the Betrians and Lebanians. The Betrian Society was organized in 1847, from an older association, the Alpha Psi; and the Lebanian Society owed its formation chiefly to the efforts of Rev. John Emory Round, '55, and Orville Watson Powers, '56. This latter society began in 1854 with four members, adding to its roll eight more names during the first year. Its existence was for a time kept secret; but the excellent influence exerted by it upon its members, stimulating them to increased effort, ultimately led to the discovery of the organization. Early in 1856 both the Lebanians and the Betrians forwarded a petition to the annual convention, holden that year with the Yale Chapter, asking for the grant of a charter. The committee to whom these petitions were referred found it exceedingly difficult to decide between the two bodies of petitioners. It soon became evident, indeed, that, since either party was powerful enough to defeat the other, neither could succeed of itself. At this juncture a union was proposed by Rev. David Hough Ela, '57, Hiram Pliny Shepard, '58, and Rev. George Henry Whitney, '58, of the Betrians, and Orville Watson Powers, '56, and Joseph Whitcomb Ellis, '58, of the Lebanians. This was finally effected. The united societies were initiated into the Fraternity of Alpha Delta Phi at the McDonough House, in Middletown, Conn., on the evening of July 31, 1856.

The subsequent history of the Chapter has been, in a large measure, what its auspicious birth predicted. It has maintained a high rank at Wesleyan University. The number of men received from each class averages nine, and the roll for any single year has rarely included over thirty names. The aggregate membership now reaches nearly two hundred and eighty. Of this number a fair proportion are in high positions. Some have become presidents of educational institutions, others are college professors, a few excel in letters, and many are successfully pursuing the various professions.

In 1876 there was an enthusiastic movement toward the erection of a Chapter house, the need of which was becoming more and more apparent. The methods adopted, however, were such as to accomplish little beyond the initiation of the enterprise. Two years later more systematic efforts brought better results; and, at the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Chapter, in 1881, the generous action of the members made the speedy erection of the hall a matter of certainty. Ground was at once broken upon the site already purchased, and plans were perfected for building in the spring of 1882.

Of the College honors won by members of the Chapter a complete list will not be attempted. While the system was in vogue that gave to men at Commencement positions according to their rank in scholarship, there is little doubt that more than her proportion was awarded to Alpha Delta Phi. That system has been abolished for some years, but the various prizes are so awarded as to afford to men of all tastes opportunities of distinguishing themselves in their several departments.

THE KENYON CHAPTER,

1858 TO 1885.

Annals.

The Kenyon Chapter received its charter in the year 1858. Tradition tells us that we are chiefly indebted to the old Yale Chapter for this blessing. The first meeting of the Chapter was held in the parlors of the Kenyon House, at which time our charter members were initiated by Brothers McDonald and Webb, of the Miami Chapter. Succeeding meetings were held for a time in the rooms of the different members, but soon a hall was secured for the exclusive use of the Chapter. Not content with this, steps were shortly taken towards building a lodge, to be owned in fee simple by the Chapter; and soon the structure was completed, which is now owned and used by the Chapter for lodge purposes.

The episode of most marked interest in the Chapter's otherwise adventureless life occurred in 1870, when the lodge was entered by members of two other Fraternities. Entrance was effected through the floor by means of an auger and a saw. After gaining admittance the intruders indulged in the most unscrupulous vandalism. The carpet was cut to pieces, chairs reduced to a size suitable for kindling wood, and a number of pictures were destroyed. Fortunately no valuable papers were in the building at the time. Nothing was removed except a catalogue and some correspondence. The catalogue was recovered immediately after its loss, and the correspondence was returned in 1879. It is satisfactory to add, in conclusion, that the offenders were speedily brought to justice through the efforts of the then undergraduate members and the work of a skilful detective. Damages in full were recovered, and the culprits themselves were expelled from College.

The Kenyon Chapter has not quite completed its first quarter of a century, and yet, as surely ought to be the case where the true spirit of $\Lambda \Gamma \Phi$ has continued thus long, we have an alumni list of which we are proud.

But eight brothers have been lost to us by death. The Chapter has ever enjoyed the cordial support of the Faculty, and was once the means of preventing the abolition of Fraternities from this College. She has gained more than her full share of College honors, as is shown by the following statements. Since the time of her establishment twenty per cent. of Kenyon's valedictorians have been Alpha Deltas. Thirty-six per cent. of the orators elected by the College have stood in the same rank. Of honor men twenty-three per cent. have been from our number. It has not been possible to ascertain with equal exactness our proportion of Phi Beta Kappa men; but as election to this body is here based almost wholly upon considerations of scholarship, favorable inference is alone possible. The active membership has numbered as high as eighteen, but the average has been about twelve.

Murray Davis, whose death occurred not long ago in California, wrote the song popular throughout the Fraternity, "When the Evening Shadows Gather," and one other. Of Prof. Strong, another contributor to our Song Book, a brother member writes that "He was an ardent and useful member. He wrote us two $\Lambda \Gamma \Phi$ songs, and was poet at the convention."

An account of the Kenyon Chapter would be incomplete without a passing reference to the proposed new lodge, and the measures already taken to obtain it. The new structure will be of stone, and will be arranged for social meetings as well as for the usual purposes of a lodge. More than one-half the amount required for its erection has been subscribed.

We are confident of success through perseverance and the general interest shown by graduate brothers as the subject is being brought to their attention, and believe that the time is close at hand when an A Λ Φ lodge will add one grace the more to our College park.

THE UNION CHAPTER,

1859 TO 1885.

Annals.

Previous to the year 1859 there existed in Union College a local association known as the Fraternal Society. It was of twenty-five years' standing, of good repute, being held in especial esteem for the moral and intellectual worth of its members. The "Frats," realizing the benefits to be derived from an affiliated Fraternity, and believing that the aims and principles of Alpha Delta Phi most nearly accorded with what they desired, determined to petition for a Chapter. One tutor and sixteen undergraduates signed the petition in the early part of 1859. On the 14th of June a charter, under the hand of Richard S. Storrs, Jr., then President of the Fraternity, was granted the petitioners. Soon after the Chapter was duly instituted under the auspices of the Manhattan Chapter, representatives from nearly all the other chapters being present.

The first meeting was held on July 15, 1859. Notwithstanding the high standing of the graduates of the Fraternal Society, the election of many graduate members was not deemed advisable, and but four were chosen. With the establishment of the Chapter the "F. S." ceased to exist.

The thirty-first Annual Convention of the Fraternity was held in Schenectady, and the forty-second in the Senate Chamber at Albany, N. Y., both under the auspices of this Chapter.

The membership of the Chapter has averaged five in a class, the aim being rather to secure the best men than large numbers. The active membership now averages four in a class. At first the Chapter retained the old rooms of the "Frats," but in a few years obtained the pleasant rooms they now occupy. We have no Chapter house, because at present we do not need one. As soon as the time for building comes, however, we are sure that our efforts will be heartily seconded by our alumni.

We have always kept up the Annual Reunions, and they have been a source of great pleasure and profit to the Chapter. During the twenty-two years of its existence the career of the Chapter has been a prosperous one.

A partial list of the honors taken by the Chapter is appended:—

THE CUMBERLAND CHAPTER,

1858 TO 1861.

Annals.

The Cumberland Chapter of the Fraternity succeeded the Alabama Chapter, and was organized at Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn., one of the oldest, most celebrated, and most flourishing institutions in the South, in accordance with the older practice of the Fraternity. Upon the suspension of active functions by the Alabama Chapter, two of its members, H. M. Somerville, a graduate, and R. H. Dawson, still a member of the University, acting under instruction from the Chapter and upon the advice of the Graduate Association, organized a Chapter in Cumberland University, and transferred to it the charter and the records of their own Chapter. The initiation took place in November or December, 1857, and John Hyde Braly represented the Chapter at the Convention held with the Miami Chapter in 1859. The status of the newly organized Chapter was not, however, fully settled until the next convention, and the name of the Chapter and its list of membership first appeared in the catalogue of 1860. The addresses then entered remained unchanged until their revision for the present catalogue. Through the coöperation of the surviving members and their kinsfolk, every member but one has been traced, and with this exception the record below is complete. At the opening of the war the University was deserted by its students, nearly all of whom enlisted in the Confederate service; the institution was closed, its building successively occupied as barracks by troops on both sides, and the University was not reopened until after the war. The Chapter suspended its active functions in 1861, and this fact was recognized by the Convention of 1863.

THE CORNELL CHAPTER,

1870 TO 1885.

Annals.

The Cornell Chapter owes much of its present prosperity to the many fortunate circumstances attending its early life.

Cornell University was formally opened in October, 1868, and it became evident that it must take a high place among American Colleges. Here was presented an excellent opportunity for the establishment of a Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi. Early in 1869 Brothers S. G. Williams, Hamilton, '52; Marcus Lyon, Yale, '52; Calvin D. Stowell, Yale, '68; Albert H. Esty, Yale, '68; Roger B. Williams, Yale, '68; S. D. Halliday, Hamilton, '69, and D. J. Brigham, Hamilton, '70, made an organized effort to obtain a Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi. The story of the trials and troubles before a charter was obtained is but a repetition of the difficulties which many new projects have to meet and overcome. In February, 1869, a charter was granted.

Preparations were now hastened for the initiation of charter members. On March 19 ten students of Cornell were initiated at the Rochester lodge. The week following their return the first meeting of the Cornell Chapter was held at Prof. S. G. Williams' house, on the evening of March 27.

A suitable lodge was not easily found, and in the meantime meetings were held at irregular intervals at the houses of resident Alpha Deltas. A room was at length secured in Wilgus Block, on State Street, and into this lodge the Chapter moved and held its first regular meeting on May 3, 1869.

A high standing had already been taken by the Chapter in Cornell. At this time the first initiation was held. This memorable fourth of June will always be looked back to as one of the brightest days in the Chapter's early history. There were present at the ceremony Brothers Theodore W. Dwight, James Russell Lowell and George William Curtis. The Chapter owes much of its early success to the zeal inspired by these loyal Alpha Deltis. The increasing size of the Chapter rendering the accommodations of the first lodge inadequate, rooms in Masonic Block, on Tioga Street, were occupied and dedicated by the initiation of October 27. These pleasant pages, however, are not without a touch of sadness; for, April 17, 1872, the Chapter was called to mourn its first loss in the death of Thomas Castle.

It is a fortunate circumstance for any Chapter to have an annual convention held under its auspices, and it was particularly fortunate for this Chapter that the convention of 1873 was held at Cornell. The four members remaining in the Chapter needed all the enthusiasm which they had obtained from the impressive ceremonies of a convention, made doubly interesting because held at their own College. Perseverance, however, soon filled the ranks, and what had threatened to be a calamity was averted.

The next item to chronicle is fairly indicative of the growth of this Chapter from the fall of 1873 to the fall of 1876; for at the latter time the project of a Chapter House was first seriously considered. To Brother William Ely Bramhall, '77, is due the credit of having originated the idea, and pushed it successfully, even when every other member was opposed to it. Even Brother Bramhall could not accomplish definite results till after the winter initiation of 1877, when Brother T. L. Mead became a member. Brother Mead aided the scheme so energetically that by the spring of 1878 plans were drafted, essentially those from which the house was finally built. The spring of 1878 was a time of great anxiety for all. There were days of the most sanguine expectations, followed by the greatest despondency; but finally the financial difficulties were arranged, and at midnight on the 10th of June, 1878, the Chapter assembled on the spot where the house now stands. The ceremonies of breaking ground for the new home were performed, and a feeling of confidence in the success of the plan took possession of all the members. Seven months later the house was occupied and the new lodge dedicated. It was not without some feelings of regret that the old lodge was left. There clung about it the recollections and history of the best years of the Chapter's life, and it was hard to part from it, even for the more beautiful and commodious one in the new house.

The social value of the Chapter House has been all and more than the members had anticipated, and since its occupation the history of the Chapter has been one of continued success.

The excellent project of a Chapter Library was inaugurated in the fall of 1877. It now contains donations from nearly every member who has been graduated since its beginning, and is a valuable aid in furnishing references which would otherwise have to be consulted at the University library.

Such the Chapter has been in itself and to its members particularly; but every society has more or less intercourse with the outside world. The relations of this Chapter with the Faculty and students have been almost without exception of the pleasantest nature. The success that has fallen to its members in the University work has always been reason for the just pride with which the Chapter regards its past standing.

At Cornell University there is only one prize for which there is public competition. This, which is known as the Woodford Prize for Oratory, is competed for yearly by six chosen members from the Senior class. At least one of the six has always been an Alpha Delta, and twice the prize has fallen to this Chapter. Brother Clarence H. Esty took it in 1876, and Brother Alfred Millard in 1879.

The popularity of the members shows fairly well the esteem in which Alpha Delta Phi is held by the rest of the College. The class honors which have been given to this Chapter are too numerous to give in detail; but, as an example, the year of 1879 may be referred to. This year not only the Woodford Prize was taken, but also the highest two offices of the Senior class. Alpha Delta Phi has been well represented on the Staff of the Cornell Era, and the literary ability of its representatives has stood unquestioned.

THE PHI KAPPA CHAPTER, 1877 TO 1885.

Annals.

The first steps towards establishing a Chapter of the Fraternity in Trinity College were taken in the spring of 1876. Negotiations were entered into with one of the local secret organizations of the College — the Phi Kappa Society — which, from the date of its foundation, in 1835, had maintained an honorable position among its contemporaries. These negotiations extended somewhat over a year, and were not fully completed until the close of 1877. On the twentieth of December of that year the sixteen active members of the Phi Kappa Society met in New York with several of their alumni, and in a hall of the Masonic Temple were duly initiated into Alpha Delta Phi. On the following day a meeting was held, at which officers were elected, and other steps were taken to effect a permanent organization. This, briefly, is the origin of the Phi Kappa Chapter.

Since its establishment the history of the Chapter has been one of continued and rapid improvement. The old Phi Kappa Society had possessed a hall in a large building in the city of Hartford, and upon the foundation of the Chapter, this hall, with its appurtenances, passed into the hands of Alpha Delta Phi. It was, however, soon deemed necessary to increase these facilities; and, accordingly, a commodious anteroom was obtained and thrown into communication with the hall — both apartments being furnished in a tasteful and suitable manner. From time to time additions have been made for the convenience and comfort of the members. Although for all present circumstances they are thus comfortably situated, their crying need is a Chapter house, which, it is unnecessary to say, would contribute greatly to the prosperity of the Chapter; and active measures are being taken with a view to erecting one. Besides its property in the city, the Chapter enjoys the use of a space of ground, beautifully situated, on the College estate, which has been enclosed and turfed, and is devoted to lawn tennis.

As to the position of the Chapter in the College, her men, where they have not gained the very first places in scholarship, have always been represented in the highest third of their classes. As to prizes and honors, the appended list will speak for itself. The Athletic field is never without a fair showing of Alpha Delts, and the Chapter is always represented on the prize list at the annual field meetings of the Athletic Association. Another point which, at Trinity, is a matter of strength to a society, is its influence in the social circles of Hartford; and in this, again, Alpha Delta Phi occupies a most satisfactory position.

MILITARY SERVICE OF
ALPHA DELTA PHI.

1861-5.

U. S. A.

C. S. A.

*We sit here in the Promised Land
That flows with freedom's honey and milk;
But 'twas they won it, sword in hand,
Making the nettle danger soft for us as silk.
We welcome back our bravest and our best : —
Ah me! Not all!*

J. R. LOWELL, Harvard, '38.

ALPHA DELTA PHI

IN THE WAR.

1861 TO 1865.

The following list contains 685 names, arranged by Chapters, making, as four names appear twice, 681 members of the Fraternity who served in the late war, or one-fifth of its membership eligible to military service, from 1861 to 1865. The record includes, by chapters, 32 names under Hamilton, 27 under Miami, 1 under Urban, 136 under Yale, 43 under Amherst, 30 under Brunonian, 62 under Harvard, 21 under Geneva, 28 under Hudson, 38 under Bowdoin, 41 under Dartmouth, 53 under Peninsular, 11 under Rochester, 27 under Alabama, 22 under Williams, 21 under Manhattan, 30 under Middletown, 18 under Kenyon, 6 under Union, 17 under Cumberland, and 21 under Phi Kappa. In rank, assigning to staff positions their existing assimilated rank in the regular army, and without reference to brevets, the list contains in the service of the United States, 2 Major Generals, 6 Brigadier Generals, 28 Colonels, 28 Lieutenant Colonels, 69 Majors, 183 Captains, 74 First Lieutenants, 31 Second Lieutenants, 41 non-commissioned officers, 96 privates, and 23 whose rank is unknown or whose service gave them no regular positions. Of those in the service of the Confederate States, the list includes 1 Lieutenant General, 2 Brigadier Generals, 3 Colonels, 4 Lieutenant Colonels, 11 Majors, 28 Captains, 10 First Lieutenants, 2 Second Lieutenants, 3 non-commissioned officers, 15 privates, and 7 whose rank was doubtful. Eighteen members of the Fraternity served in various capacities in the United States Navy, and one in the Navy of the Confederate States.

The record given below, compiled in the War Department, from extended correspondence, and the records and publications of the Southern Historical Society, differs in many cases from the brief memorandum appended to each name in the body of this work. This is chiefly due to the fact, that the records of the War Department often fail to give a rank held and exercised under temporary regimental appointment, for months together, at the close of the war, and for which no commissions issued, but which was returned as the highest rank held by members in filling out the circulars sent out from each Chapter. Other discrepancies are due to the absence of particular names from the official record, and in these cases it has been deemed best to give the record of service as furnished by members or the surviving friends of deceased members.

In one regiment, the 50th N. Y. Engineers, U. S. A., with which two members were connected whose official record could not be obtained, inquiry at Washington and Albany brought out the fact that the regimental record was incomplete and fragmentary, no unnatural circumstance in a volunteer engineer regiment whose members were probably never assembled together. The scattered condition of the military records of the Confederacy leaves the record of our brothers who were in its service extremely incomplete, even after careful examination of the archives at Washington. It has been deemed best in the two Chapters whose membership was chiefly represented in this service, Alabama and Cumberland, to give in two separate paragraphs, first the record as obtained by personal correspondence, and next the brief result of the examination of the rolls at Washington. Fragmentary, incomplete, often lacking, the record as thus made up is its own pathetic commentary upon the issues of a conflict which brought to one victory and to another defeat, but to none disgrace.

In the arrangement of these names, chapter and class rank has been followed, and names scattered in the ranks of war are here brought back as they sat side by side in the lodge room. For the first time, in a list of this character, service on both sides receives equal recognition, as from its foundation and in its organic law the Fraternity has stipulated that sectional feeling shall nowhere enter in its records.

The grateful acknowledgments of the Fraternity are due to the Hon. Secretary of War, Robert T. Lincoln, and General Richard C. Dunn, Adjutant General, for generous and invaluable aid in the compilation of this list, whose preparation has been under the superintendence and is the result of the labors of Brothers R. H. Thayer, Peninsular, '70, and R. J. Mitchell, Williams, '56. No similar list — and few even comparable to it have been attempted — has, it is believed, ever equalled this in accuracy or comprehensive plan. The fortunes of war and the scattered records of its War Department have made it difficult to gather full records of our brothers in the C. S. A. service. Any information on this point, or any other emendation, amendment, or addition to the list below, will be gratefully received for use in future editions of the Catalogue, by the Editor or the Recorder, to the end that a complete record may be at last obtained of all the members of our Fraternity who attested their devotion to their flag and its principles by service in the field.

Surgeon, Yale, 1; Geneva, 1; Dartmouth, 1; Williams, 1; Middletown, 1; Phi Kappa, 1; Paymaster, Brunonian, 1; Asst. Paymaster, Yale, 2; Harvard, 1; Dartmouth, 1; Paymaster's Clerk, Manhattan, 1; Surgeon's Mate, Dartmouth, 1; Doubtful, Dartmouth, 1. One member of the Fraternity served for a brief period in the C. S. N. as Aide-de-Camp.

SUPPLEMENTAL LISTS.

IN

KINSHIP.

The following is a list of the fathers, sons and brothers in the Fraternity, classified into sets of father and one son; father and two sons; father and three sons; two brothers; three brothers and four brothers. Where father and son or brothers are of different Chapters, the group of kin is entered twice in the list, under each Chapter. Allowance for this repetition is made at the end of the tabular summary. Had other than filial and fraternal relationships been traced, the list of kin would have been much larger. It is hoped that the next Catalogue will show cousins and uncles. A partial examination of collateral relationships made in a single Chapter, Amherst, shows that such a list would include fully 2,500 names, if not a much larger number. There are in the Fraternity 93 fathers of $A \Delta \psi$'s, 121 sons of $A \Delta \psi$'s, and 788 brothers by blood.

A table of the abbreviations given below appears in the Preface of this Catalogue, and the pages occupied by each Chapter are noted in the running line of the index of names.

GEOGRAPHICAL DISTRIBUTION.

THE following list contains the names embraced in the body of the present work, rearranged by place. The general arrangement followed has been to give, first, the States alphabetically, under the general title of the United States; next, the divisions of Canada in the same fashion; and, lastly, "Other Foreign Countries." Places under each division and subdivision are arranged alphabetically. The orthography of the present list has been guided by the "Postal Guide," leading, in a few instances, to a departure from the spelling earlier employed. In none of these cases does the form below interfere with the alphabetization. Three places, no longer post offices, at which deceased members of the Fraternity lived — Farrowsville, Va., Elmsford and Cortlandville, N. Y. — are retained in the list below. In the case of several deceased members from the South, the original county address, as given by them, has been retained. To those familiar with the condition of Southern society thirty years ago, it will not be surprising that a county was then considered a sufficient address by the member of some one of the few families between which its surface was divided. In the arrangement of names under each place, the conventional asterisk has been prefixed to deceased brothers. Addresses by street number are given for all places in the United States over 50,000 in population by the census of 1880. These are 35 in number and among them New Orleans is the only one without a considerable number of Fraternity residents. In giving street numbers, no one rule has been followed as to which should be presented, the residence (domicile) or business address. In each case it has been the purpose of the compiler to give the address which was most likely to prove permanent. Where a person doing business in a large city and living in one of its suburbs, has given the latter as his residence, his name will be found classified under the place of his residence with his business address attached to his name. A secondary address is sometimes given for persons living in small places where this seemed wise, and in several cases, where a member of the Fraternity has two residences between which he divides his time, his name appears under both places. Where street addresses are given, a period, unless after an abbreviation, uniformly indicates that the preceding word is a street. Tabulated statements, which succeed the Index by Names, give the aggregate distribution of the Fraternity by place and country, and are followed by a Table of Occupations, the latter arranged by Chapters.

BY

NAMES.

The following list contains the names of all recognized members of the Fraternity, arranged alphabetically. In alphabetizing, "Cutter's Rules" have been followed, and, as information in regard to names was frequently obtained after the Chapter had gone to press, the list below sometimes contains full names where initials appear earlier. In all cases where the name given below differs from the name previously given the authoritative entry appears in this list. Here, as in the body of the work, names and parts of names dropped by the owners appear in brackets. In all such instances, the accredited name, which should be used in all addresses, is that portion not bracketed. For this reason, the bracketed names are omitted in the Geographical List and elsewhere in this work, except in the original entry and in the list below. A subscript, giving the pagination of each chapter, appears as a running line through the list.

IN TIME.

The following Table of the growth of the Fraternity during the last fifty years is compiled from the successive Catalogues. In the first five, in the Catalogue of 1860 and of 1865, and the last, the totals can be accepted without hesitation. Discrepancies exist in the remaining Catalogues, which nothing short of a collation name by name can remove. As it stands, the Table is felt to give information at once unique and interesting. The increase of Chapters, after they had suspended their active functions, is due to a more careful examination of the records, several such additions occurring in this Catalogue. In the line under Miami the names entered in early Catalogues under Cincinnati are included. The net total in the Catalogue of 1876 is a corrected index total, and, hence, differs from the entry in the Bibliography, which gives in each case the actual number of names in the index. The column of active membership gives the total for January 1, 1882, except for Harvard, whose initiations came later. In Dartmouth the annual initiation takes place in the spring.

OCCUPATIONS.

Although much care has been bestowed upon the following table, it does not pretend to absolute accuracy. Within the limits of this work, however, it is submitted that perfection is nearly, if not quite, impossible. Such are the conditions of American life that in many cases it has been necessary to choose for entry here some one of two or three occupations pursued, often, at the same time, by the same man. The rule has been, therefore, to select the business or profession of the greatest pecuniary importance to the persons engaged in the same; doubtless, errors of judgment have thus been made. Among instructors, for example, are enrolled very many clergymen, numerous bankers and journalists are still lawyers, and some physicians are also druggists.

Exigencies of space have made the number of divisions as few as possible, and some, in consequence, contain many possible subdivisions. Merchants include all who live by buying chattels or land to sell again, or who receive a commission for conducting such sales; but stock brokers are classed with bankers. Students embrace all who died before settling in any business or profession; those also who went from college into the army, and were there killed, are numbered here.

The divisions Army and Navy apply only to those in the regular service of the United States or some foreign nation, and Diplomats include those in the consular service of governments other than our own. All corporation and bureau employés, not presidents, secretaries or superintendents, are entered with clerks. Stock breeders and sheep raisers are included among agriculturists.

It should be remembered that no deductions have been made for names counted twice; the object of this tabulation being to discover the relative numbers in different vocations and Chapters, the matter was not important.

The column of unknown occupations is mainly filled with men who died but a few years after graduation.

Of the list of clergymen of unknown denominations nearly forty are, in all probability, Congregational.

Though not exhaustive, this tabulation may not be without a certain public interest. It might have been extended to show the times when the thoughts of young men turned towards certain professions; thus, none of the journalists of the Fraternity graduated before 1850, while the proportion of clergymen in delegations of different years is matter for reflection. But, even as the matter stands, few tables of this kind have been prepared, and this one shows, perhaps, with tolerable clearness, what has become of some five thousand five hundred men picked out of twenty-three colleges in the last fifty years.

The following list contains, under the title "Scattering," Examiners of Patents: Hamilton, 1; Bowdoin, 1. Sailors: Miami, 1; Amherst, 1; Bowdoin, 1. Machinists: Yale, 1; Harvard, 1; Cornell, 2. Telegraph Operator: Miami, 1. Inventor: Rochester, 1. Lithographer: Middletown, 1.

STATES AND CITIES.

The following Table is intended to show the places where the Fraternity is strongest in numbers, and the proportion of brothers living in cities; matters worthy of consideration in the foundation of new Chapters.

Owing to the Fraternity's constant increase in membership, and to the fact that some men have more than one address, the totals of this table vary slightly from those in the preceding ones. This variation is not a sufficient interference with the object of the summary to call for any more elaborate statement.

APPENDIX.

NOTES, ADDITIONS AND CORRECTIONS.

This Appendix contains all the information which has come to the Committee too late for insertion elsewhere, some corrections of typographical errors, and notes of such clues as we have to the whereabouts of missing men, together with a list of those brothers whose residences are unknown. That such residences have not been found by the Committee does not prove that others will find any great difficulty in discovering them. All brothers, therefore, are earnestly requested to lighten the labors of future committees by sending to any of the members of this one all information they have or may conveniently obtain concerning those whose whereabouts is uncertain, and those of whom the only thing certain is death.

As in the body of this work the Chapter and Class arrangement has been maintained.

MIAMI.

Though every effort has been made, the Committee have been entirely unable to obtain a university triennial. It is even denied that there is one in existence. In the body of the Catalogue, therefore, the dagger has been prefixed to the names of those brothers only, of whom it is affirmatively shown that they did not receive the degree of A.B. from Miami. In the A Δ Φ Catalogues of '37, '40, '45 and '48, however, it was the rule to insert degrees of every kind, and from these pamphlets it seems that the following brothers are non-graduates:—

Molony, '35; Birney, Groesbeck, Hart, Holt and Page, '39; Belville, Conover and Steele, '40; Armor, Green and Portis, '42; Keely, '43; Effinger and Wright, '45; Mayo, '47.

Five brothers, who between the years 1838 and 1840 received elections while students in the Cincinnati Law School, were, until the publication of the Catalogue of 1860, regarded as a separate Chapter, though no charter was ever issued to them. In 1860 they were arbitrarily assigned to those classes of Miami whose A Δ Φ delegations were smallest. Before this assignment was made, all but one of these five were dead, and that one died more than ten years ago. Under these circumstances it has been thought best to leave undisturbed an arrangement, however misleading, which has been acquiesced in for twenty-two years.

The names of these brothers, and their assigned classes in Miami, are: Brush and Gallagher, '44; James, '46; Perkins, '50; Pugh, '51.
